

NEW FURY IS SHOWN BY LASSEN

HE PLAYS CHUCK-A-LUCK
AND BREAKS UP GAMBLING ON LINER
BANKER'S PROFITS FADE

MRS. MARY ANN BIXBY, JR. (LEFT), AND HER SISTER, MISS CHARLOTTE BIXBY, IN COSTUMES IN WHICH THEY APPEARED AT PARTY ON LINER.

SHOOTING MYSTERY

WOMAN IS SLAIN IN OFFICE

Hand Through Broken Glass Fires Fatal Shot

Doctor Declares Bullet Came in Through Window

NEWPORT, N. Y., July 1.—Police and county authorities are seeking today a motive for the murder of Mrs. William Bailey, wife of William Bailey of Hempstead, in the office of Dr. Edward Carman.

William Bailey, husband of the woman, is a hat manufacturer in Brooklyn. He was surprised to learn that his wife had been a patient of Dr. Carman and said so far as he knew she had no enemies. Dr. Carman, too, told the authorities that he knew of no cause for the crime, or reason to believe that the shot was intended for him. Mrs. Bailey was shot through the heart.

According to Dr. Carman, she arrived at his office, which is in his home, at 7:30 o'clock last night. An hour later, he said, she was preparing to leave when a window pane was broken, a man's hand holding a revolver thrust in and the shot fired that ended her life.

Detectives found that the window through which Dr. Carman said the shot had been fired was covered with a wire screen, which was on hinges and could only be opened from the inside.

Dr. Carman said today Mrs. Bailey's visit to his office last night was her first and that he had not been acquainted with her before that time. Two men patients, who were waiting in the physician's outer office when Mrs. Bailey was shot, said they heard no noise until they were startled by the report of a pistol. When they entered the consultation room Mrs. Bailey was dead, and they helped Dr. Carman carry her body to a couch.

So many persons had trampled the grass outside the windows of the doctor's office that bloodhounds brought to the scene today proved useless.

DOCTOR'S STORY SUPPORTED.
Evidence accumulated today to support Dr. Carman's story. In the physician's room, four feet from the window, the police found an instrument case bearing on its white enamel finish powder marks and a furrow that might have been plowed by the bullet as it sped towards Mrs. Bailey. This instrument case is so low that had the shot been fired inside the room the person who held the pistol must have squatted on the floor. It was, however, directly in the

LIGHTNING WRECKS BUILDINGS; KILLS MAN WHO IS MILKING COW

KANSAS CITY, July 1.—Lightning, which accompanied heavy rains here late yesterday, played several queer pranks. The Danish Lutheran church in Kansas City, Kan., was split into two parts as though struck by a heavy cleaver. A heavy rain amounting almost to a cloudburst visited Atchison. The dome of the postoffice building was wrecked by lightning and water several inches deep ran in the streets. At Minneapolis, Kan., a school house was damaged by lightning and a school building at Culver was destroyed.

At Stanley, E. O. Holmes, a salesman, was killed by lightning while milking a cow. A hail storm near Florence and a heavy rain in Marshall county are said to have caused damage to crops.

FIREMEN INJURED

Hundreds of Hotel Guests Are Panic-stricken; Patrolman Is Hero.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Several hundred guests in the Union Hotel, at 512 Michigan street, were thrown into panic shortly after 5 o'clock this morning, when fire broke out in the hotel and caused damage to the extent of $2000 before it was extinguished.

The blaze is believed to have been caused by defective wiring.

Two firemen were injured. William W. Niefer, 59 Dorland street, while answering the alarm, fell down the pole in the house of Truck No. 1, injuring his spine. He was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital. His condition is serious. Fireman James O'Shaughnessy pierced his right foot with a nail while dragging hose through the hallway.

Patrolman Albert S. Munn, former athlete and hammer-thrower of the University of California, was the first one to reach the blaze. He alarmed the lodgers, among whom were William Hager, an aged veteran; Charles Bonea, a cook, and Ferdinand Flaxel, son of Peter Flaxel, who owned the hotel. The Nevada Hotel, adjoining the Union Hotel, was saved from damage, but its guests were forced to flee.

SPANKS A HERO.
Joseph Smith, 13 years old, 1 Lena place, shared the honors with Munn. Joseph is a great friend of Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, a waitress in the Union Hotel. He knew there was a mirror in her room that she prized highly. He dashed in to get it, but the lad

His life was in danger, but the lad

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

San Franciscan Named Ambassador to Russia

WASHINGTON, July 1.—George T. Mays Jr. of San Francisco has been finally decided upon for ambassador to Russia. President Wilson today prepared his nomination for transmission to the Senate.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—George T. Mays Jr. was nominated today by President Wilson to be ambassador to Russia. He is one of the youngest and youngest California pioneers. Born in Baltimore, Md., in 1849, he came west with his father in the early days of the gold rush.

He was a partner in the California Central Pacific and was one of the first to settle in the San Francisco area. He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895.

He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895. He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895.

He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895. He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895.

He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895. He was a member of the California legislature and served as mayor of San Francisco from 1891 to 1895.

'RAG' PARTY HAS ECHO AT U. C.

Principal, With Visions of One "Self-Government Day," Revolts

Now Advocates Absolute Monarchy, With Self as Monarch

A student "Self-Government day" that ended in a "rag party," and was the cause of a vigorous investigation by the board of education in Oakland, today made its way into the deliberations of the California High School Teachers' Association at the University of California, when F. S. Rosseter, principal of the Fremont High School, where the merry tango enthusiasts governed themselves, according to the rules of terpsichore, made a spirited appeal against student control of any school activities.

Rosseter was once favorable to student self-government. His experiment of a "Student Self-Government day," at which older students acted as teachers and pupils were placed on honor to behave, was hailed with joy. But there was a piano in the school. Naturally a dance followed, and the principal was wroth.

Now he thinks a school should be a "monarchy with the principal as the monarch."

In a spirited argument against student control, before the physical education section of the convention this morning, Rosseter said: "The school should be a monarchy," declared Rosseter, "with the principal as the monarch. The principal ought to control athletics just as he controls other things. I am not in sympathy with any form of student control which gives the student the right to run the policies of the school or of the student body."

The project of securing the formation of the office of state commissioner of athletics was discussed at length in favor of it spoke Graham Moody of Berkeley, I. C. Manthe of Wisconsin, and others.

In the history section this morning Miss Mabelle Pappert of the Livingston school presented the results of investigations she has been conducting regarding early travel to California. She declared that the text books will have to be corrected in order to give more emphasis to the Southern group, which has been largely ignored.

TO SUPPORT WOMEN.

It is probable that the whole California High School Teachers' Association will stand behind the women teachers in their efforts to secure the passage of a uniform wage law for men and women instructors. The resolutions adopted yesterday afternoon were the subject of

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 7.)

Broker Whose Auto Killed Chinaman Sued

Max W. Koehn, real estate broker, was made defendant today in a suit for $10,000 damages, filed by Low Hing, administrator of the estate of Wong Tie, deceased. The complaint alleges that Wong Tie came to his death on March 14 of this year from injuries received when he was run down by the defendant's automobile at Eighth and Harrison streets. It is alleged in the complaint that the car was driven at an excessive rate of speed and that it gave no warning of its approach.

Wong Tie was 55 years of age and sojourning in this city at the time of his death. He was a native of China and had been in this country for many years.

The suit was filed in the superior court today by Low Hing, who is the administrator of the estate of Wong Tie.

The suit was filed in the superior court today by Low Hing, who is the administrator of the estate of Wong Tie.

MARCONI TO LINK WALES AND GOTHAM BEFORE YEAR ENDS

LONDON, July 1.—"Marconi contemplates being able to telegraph from Carnarvon, Wales, to New York before the end of this year," was the statement made today by the manager of the Marconi company in testifying before the dominion's royal commission on imperial communication. He added also that Marconi anticipated increasing the speed of the wireless to 300 words a minute.

GUN BLUFFS THIEF

Invalid Woman Puts Burglar to Flight with Unloaded Revolver.

Startled by a burglar forcing his way into her room today Mrs. H. J. Shepherd, an invalid, 35 Glenn avenue, dragged herself from her bed, seized an empty revolver from a holster near the head of her bed and leveled it at the intruder. With a cry of alarm the man fled, leaping through a window in the adjoining room by means of which he had gained entrance to the house.

Mrs. Shepherd fell backward across the bed, where she was found by a small boy who had been asked to stay in the house and run errands for her in case she needed anything. The boy notified neighbors, who informed the police of the attempted burglary. They were informed that the police had no one they could send to investigate the matter.

Mrs. Shepherd has been ill for some time and her husband underwent a minor operation at the hospital. She was alone in the house excepting for the boy.

She heard a noise in the room adjoining her own, and thinking it was the boy, she paid no attention until suddenly a man entered her room. He was roughly dressed and had red hair. Mrs. Shepherd managed to get her husband's revolver and although she knew it was empty, she leveled it at the man's head. He fled. Then she fell back in a swoon.

The attempted robbery occurred shortly before 9 o'clock this morning.

Haytien Revolutionary Leader and Men Slain

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Senator Davila Theodore, the Haytien revolutionist leader, has been killed in battle with fifty of his followers near the dominican frontier. Captain Eberle of the cruiser Washington today reported his information from two members of the Haytien cabinet.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Cape Haytien is quiet and still in possession of the government forces. Rebels hold the outlying territory and have made several attacks on government outposts. One German cruiser is at Cape Haytien. All service on the American railroad between Cape Haytien and Bahen has been discontinued on account of interference.

Desultory firing continues around the northern tip of Porto Plata, Dominican Republic, where the rebels still hold the city, according to a report from Captain Russell on the battleship South Carolina. President Borden's government forces, however, have made new trenches about 600 yards south of the main position of the rebels, have fortified the camps recently occupied and are supposed to be moving closer in on the city. Food supplies in the besieged city are scarce.

Uster Volunteers Carry Arms Openly

They have been ordered to do so by the Swiss government. The volunteers are a group of men who are trained in military tactics and are known for their loyalty to the Swiss government.

The volunteers are a group of men who are trained in military tactics and are known for their loyalty to the Swiss government.

The volunteers are a group of men who are trained in military tactics and are known for their loyalty to the Swiss government.

CLOUD GOES TO HEIGHT OF MILE

Plume of Blackened Steam Sends Ash Over Wide Area

Eruption Greatest Since Mountain Showed Activity

RED BLUFF, Cal., July 1.—After less than 24 hours of quiescence, Lassen peak burst forth early today in a stupendous eruption—the fourteenth of the series that began May 30. No flames were seen, but the vast plume of blackened steam from the crater waved a mile high and volcanic ash fell at Macomber Flats, thirteen miles distant.

For a little less than half an hour the inverted cone of soaring gases maintained, sharply defined, the well-known volcanic outline. First, from the mouth of the crater itself, stood up a vertical shaft of jet-black ash. As the shaft arose it mushroomed outward, keeping at its heart the black core of ash, but beginning to shade into whites and greys at the edges, and finally fanning outward over the sky in a vast panoply of gloom.

The air was clear today, and from the moment the eruption began at 5:45 a. m. until the spreading cloud of smoke obscured vision, the phenomenon could be observed with precision.

CLOUD OF GREAT HEIGHT.

So great was the force of the eruption that the height of the cloud seemed to equal the distance from the mouth of the crater to the plateau at the base of the peak proper. It was almost as if one mountain had been about to erupt.

At this distance there was the appearance of what seemed a thin sheet of rases hissing from a crevice or fissure on the north slope, distinct from the main crater itself. Two eruptions seemed to be going on at the same time.

Of the length of this fissure or its position with relation to the main crater were indeterminate today, but judging from appearances the new vent was of considerable length.

The true volcanic nature of the eruption, as determined by J. S. Diller of the United States geological survey, was further emphasized today by a strong stench of sulphur perceptible at Volia and at Viola, twenty-two miles down the wind to the north. No ashes fell at the United States forest station at Mineral, which lay up the wind.

These last two successive eruptions of the peak emphasized the warning given by Mr. Diller, after his reconnaissance, that nothing could be predicted of the future behavior of the volcano.

Far the outbursts have been progressively violent. That of yesterday was easily the most marked of the series up to that time and today's far overtopped yesterday's in grandeur and duration.

LAKE FALLS.

CHICO, July 1.—Manzanita lake, a small body of water at the base of Lassen peak proper, and thirteen miles from the summit, is reported to have fallen three feet since yesterday's eruption.

FOIL SUFFRAGISTS

Congressmen, Expecting to Be Stormed, Unexpectedly Postpone Meeting

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Disorderly conduct by a group of suffragists who expected to storm the U. S. Capitol today, has caused the postponement of a meeting of the Women's National Committee.

The meeting was expected to be held today, but was postponed until August 1. The committee was expected to discuss the proposed amendment to the constitution for women's suffrage.

VITICULTURISTS HOLD CONVENTION

Grape Growers Gather Under Auspices of State Commission for Discussion.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Under the auspices of the State Board of Viticultural Commissioners, the Grape Growers' convention and lecture was held last night at the Scottish Rite hall. San Francisco is the third viticultural district and State Viticultural Commissioner C. E. Dunderberg presided. In opening the convention he told of the commission's creation, and cited its purposes. He stated that the commission intended to establish a bureau of information at the exposition in order to advise newcomers desirous of entering the viticultural industry. He emphasized the fact that the commission but also raise and raise grapes. Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith of Los Angeles gave the poetical side of the history of the grape industry. She started with the first grapes brought to California and planted by Father Junipero Serra and traced the culture of the vine to the present time.

She told of the work the federal government had done to encourage the industry and of the investigations made by the state through the university and extension work.

Her talk did not deal with the more substantial and business side of the grape industry, but she pointed out the increase of the vineyard industry with the growth of the state. Her history and poetry, the lives of its great men of affairs and writers.

Viticultural Commissioner Frank T. Sweet of Martinez, who followed Mrs. Goldsmith spoke on "The Economic Effect of the Proposed Amendment on the Wine, Table and Raisin Grape Industries of California," pouring ridicule upon the heads of S. Odell president of the Dry Federation, and Rev. Mr. Bane, who contributed an article to a local evening paper on May 9.

BRITISH HERO GIVEN AMERICAN HONOR CROSS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Presentations of the American Cross of Honor to Coxswain Sidney Harris of the British life-saving service was announced today by Thomas H. Harrison, president of the society. American Ambassador Page presented the cross, through the Duke of Northumberland, president of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution, which each year designates some hero in the United Kingdom to be thus honored.

VALLEJO, July 1.—The men who served on the U. S. Oregon during the war with Spain will celebrate the anniversary of the battle of Santiago de Cuba by holding a re-union and giving a banquet Friday evening, July 3, in the Cosmos Cafe, 658 Market street, San Francisco. There are twenty residents of this city who were attached to the famous battleship of the navy during the war with Spain.

My Patients Wrote This Ad

- (1) After wearing one of Dr. Schafhirt's different plates of teeth with no roof and no gums, I can say they have given perfect satisfaction.
- (2) They are so comfortable that I am not conscious of the fact that they are artificial and so natural looking that even my closest friends are not aware that I have false teeth.
- (3) They leave the whole roof of my mouth free so that I can taste all my food and talk comfortably.
- (4) The teeth are so firmly in place they might be my own.
- (5) The roofless teeth are better than any old-style plate I have tried.
- (6) They are simply wonderful.
- (7) I had three different plates made by three separate dentists and never could wear any of them, but have used your method with perfect comfort.
- (8) I have yet to find a crust too hard, a steak too tough or an ear of corn too large to fit them.
- (9) I would not take a thousand dollars for them if they could not be replaced.

1. Mrs. L. B. Peterson, 1710 Webster St., San Francisco.
2. Mrs. M. N. Couch, 523 23d St., Oakland.
3. Mr. M. A. Harris, 4050 Lyon Ave., Fruitvale.
4. Capt. E. J. Wilding, 101 Edith St., Oakland.
5. Mr. J. Dessum, 908 Chestnut St., Oakland.
6. Mrs. W. J. Aven, 3231 Magnolia St., Oakland.
7. Mrs. M. E. Blady, Ukiah, Cal.
8. Dr. C. A. Stevens, 1561 Park St., Alameda.
9. Mr. Russell Elder, 655 28th St., Oakland.

Dr. J. B. SCHAFHIRT
Second Floor, Room 9,
Macdonough Theater Bldg.,
1322 Broadway Corner 14th St.,
Entrance on Broadway Side.
Phone UAK 1443 OR FREE BUSH.

NOTE
Schafhirt's
NO GUMS
NO ROOF

NOTE
Schafhirt's
NO GUMS
NO ROOF

LIQUOR UNDER BAN AT MARE ISLAND

Secretary Daniels' "Dry" Order Goes Into Effect at Yards.

MARE ISLAND, July 1.—Today there is no liquor in the homes of naval officers at the local station. The officers do not take very kindly to the order as they see no reason why they should have such a restriction placed upon them. Secretary of the Navy Daniels thinks otherwise, however, and it is stated that he will see that his "no booze in navy to the letter. Hull department officers at the navy yard announced yesterday that the keel of the tanker Maumee, a sister ship of the Kanawha will be laid at the building slip on Monday, July 20.

Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., of Mare Island has been authorized to conduct an examination on Monday, July 6 to fill the vacancies of warrant carpenter in the navy.

was delivered at the building slip yesterday morning and the machinery department mechanics will install the same during the next two days.

Naval Constructor H. M. Gleason, U. S. N., hull department officer at the navy yard leaves today for Mendocino county in quest of deer. He will be accompanied by Pete Kaarsberg, the former football star of California University, who is now employed at Mare Island as a draftsman.

The bids for repairing the army tug Slocum will be opened by the army quartermaster on Thursday. The navy yard will submit a bid and the station officials are anxious to land the contract.

The keels for the two steel coal barges which are to be built at the navy yard this summer will be laid July 19 in dock No. 2.

As soon as the Yorktown and Goldsborough leave dock No. 1 the collier Nanshan will be placed in the cradle. The collier is to be placed in commission on July 15 and will leave the yard about August 1 with stores and coal for the Pacific patrol squadron.

Mare Island officers hope to dock the army troopship Crook about the 15th of next month. The vessel will be placed in cradle No. 1.

The German cruiser Nurnberg is due to arrive at the navy yard about the middle of July to be docked and receive some minor repairs. It is expected that the center will remain at least one week.

The Mare Island ocean going tug Iroquois left the navy yard shortly before the noon hour yesterday and is now on her way to San Diego where she will assist the naval reserve ship Maumee head at her annual target practice next month. The tug will return before the Kanawha launching.

Chief Gunner F. C. Wikner, U. S. N., Mare Island's new injury officer, paid a visit to navy yard yesterday. He will assume his new duties next week.

Chief Gunner and Mrs. Montgomery left yesterday afternoon for Oregon where they will spend the next month visiting Gunner Montgomery's folks.

COLORED SPANISH WAR VETERANS ENCAP

VALLEJO, July 1.—The annual encampment of the Colored Spanish War Veterans will be held in this city this week. The convention will be held at the headquarters of Captain Charles Young Camp, U. S. W. V., in Georgia street. Department Commander David Holden of Berkeley and all of the other state officials are present and there is a large attendance from the various camps around the bay. A public installation of the newly elected officers will be held at the Labor Temple in Virginia street Friday evening and the public is invited to attend.

LIQUOR LICENSES ARE GRANTED AT VALLEJO

VALLEJO, July 1.—The city council yesterday afternoon granted liquor licenses to the Solano Brewing Company, Rigdon & Stevens, Stohrer & Dallas, Charnas and John Diers. At the same time M. M. Madigan was granted a license to conduct a saloon business at 123 Georgia street.

HAY DESTROYED BY FIRE NEAR VALLEJO

VALLEJO, July 1.—Forty-five tons of hay, belonging to Robert Watson, the well known rancher was destroyed Monday when sparks from a well-boring outfit belonging to Frank Struble set fire to the stubble at the Watson place.

USE ELEVATORS.

VALLEJO, July 1.—The steamer Stanley Dollar with 2900 tons of bulk grain arrived at the Sperry Flour Mill at South Vallejo yesterday morning and for the first time since their installation the grain elevators were called upon to unload the cargo. A slight mishap to one of the elevators put it out of commission in the afternoon but the other working at a 150-ton-an-hour capacity will have the wheat removed some time today. Superintendent J. H. Dyer of the mill was instrumental in having the elevators installed and he is also planning on having a number of other improvements made to the establishments this summer.

TO ANALYZE SOIL.

VALLEJO, July 1.—Secretary E. J. Westerman of the Vallejo Chamber of Commerce and members of the committee on soil investigation will secure samples of soil in this vicinity during the next few days so that it can be analyzed by the University of California chemists to determine what it is best adapted for.

TO ERECT ARCH.
VALLEJO, July 1.—Plans of an arch to be erected at the foot of Georgia street before Admission Day were submitted to the Vallejo Realty board today. The plans will be submitted to the Native Sons for their adoption before the arch is erected.

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

Sufferers from Tuberculosis often think that medicine will not help them. Fresh air, regular habits and good food aid in restoring health, but more is often needed. Many have been restored to health by Eckman's Alternative. Read this.

"Gentlemen: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1912, I was taken with phthisis pulmonalis, which developed into tuberculosis (bacilli were found) in February, 1903. I was in St. North, Texas and later to Genoa, Italy. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless and I was to return home.

After reaching there alive on July 11, 1906, I began taking Eckman's Wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Now I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator." (Abbreviated)

(Affidavit) ARTHUR WERNER
Eckman's Alternative is most effective in bronchitis, catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Sold by The Owl Drug Co., and leading druggists. Write Eckman (Laboratory), Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet of recovery.

Make "Interest Day" your "Independence Day." Select a homesite at this sale. Every day valuations are going up. Oakland's population is increasing faster than any other city in California, and THE ELECTRIC LOOP TRACT is the last big subdivision in this rapidly growing city.

FREE EXCURSION TICKETS

Our representatives, wearing yellow badges, will be at the Ferry Building Saturday and Sunday to give you FREE round-trip tickets to the tract—good for three persons.

Interest Day

Wednesday, July 1st, is "Interest Day" to California Savings Bank Depositors.

When You Take Your Book to the Bank, Remember There are only two interest days in a year; the next one will not come till January 1, 1915. Why not make every day an interest day? As little as $35 invested right now in the

ELECTRIC LOOP TRACT

Will give you immediate possession of a fully improved homesite in Oakland's fastest growing residence section—then every day your investment is growing in value—you have 365 interest days in the year instead of only 2 days.

CHOICE LOTS

$5 PER MONTH

City Improvements Given Free

Every day is Interest Day to those who own a homesite in THE ELECTRIC LOOP TRACT. Come and fill your purse with profits during this public sale. Saturday is "Independence Day"; make it your day of independence from the landlord. A lot now means a home later.

FREE AUTOMOBILE TRIPS

Call at Oakland office and our drivers will take you out to the property absolutely FREE of any obligation—or take East 14th street cars to Havenscourt.

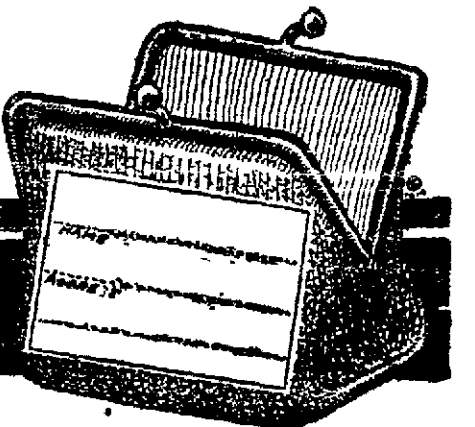

Phone Either Office To-Day for FREE Trip to the Property

E. J. HENDERSON

301-302-303-304-305-306-307-308-309-310-311 First National Bank Building, OAKLAND, Cal.
207-208-209-210-222-223 Balboa Building, Second and Market Sts., SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.

Phone Oakland 411
Phone Sutter 2021

write your name on the purse and mail it

TWO AUTOS LEAP BRIDGES; TWO DIE

Separate Accidents Cause Deaths in Vicinity of Santa Cruz.

SANTA CRUZ, July 1.—One man and a youth were killed yesterday in separate automobile accidents striking a similar to that in which Attorney A. A. Moore Jr. of San Francisco recently met his death.

THE DEAD.

Harry Schemel, Gilroy, Woodford Kron, Santa Cruz. Schemel was killed and his two companions were severely injured while the three were speeding down the Escondido canyon from Hollister to Gilroy to the bedside of Julius Schemel the victim's brother.

Harry Schemel had received a telephone message in Hollister that his brother had suffered another attack of heart disease.

He was told to hurry home. As a matter of fact Julius Schemel, who was owner of the Gilroy Telephone Company, had dropped dead in his office, but the man who had telephoned his brother did not want to break the news of sudden death over the wire.

Schemel and his companions drove through a defective bridge guarded by a light barrier without danger lights.

Kron, the young son of H. P. Kron, president of the Kron Canning Company and vice-president of the Santa Cruz County National bank, was instantly killed when the automobile in which he was riding plunged over a forty-foot embankment at Littlejohn bridge eight miles from this city. Harold Turner of San Francisco was Kron's companion and was injured.

REALTY OPERATOR GETS TERM IN PENITENTIARY

PORTLAND Ore., July 1.—E. C. Herlow, formerly a prominent realty operator of Los Angeles, who was convicted of a charge of larceny recently yesterday was sentenced to serve one to ten years in the penitentiary by Circuit Judge Morrow. A similar sentence to two years was imposed on W. H. Chapin, convicted of a similar charge.

The two men were alleged to have received $20,000 from Mr. and Mrs. William Grace to invest for them in mortgage securities and to have pocketed the money instead, using it for the benefit of the Commercial Trust and Trust Company.

TO NOMINATE SENATORS BY DIRECT PRIMARIES

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 1.—Attorney General W. V. Tanner today ruled that under the provisions of the new federal law for the direct election of United States senators, senatorial candidates must be nominated in direct primaries in the same manner as candidates for the and second choice votes applying.

SCOTTS CELEBRATE BANNOCK-BURN

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., July 1.—A large number of natives of Scotland were gathered here today celebrating the six hundredth anniversary of the battle of Bannockburn. The anniversary falls on June 24, but this was so close to Dominion day that it was decided to celebrate both events today.

MONKEY'S GLAND GRAFTED TO CHILD

Physical Deformity and Imbecility Cured by Peculiar Operation.

PARIS, July 1.—The radical cure of a disease characterized by physical deformity and imbecility—by grafting the thyroid gland of a monkey, was described last night at the Academy of Medicine by Dr. Veronoff, a widely known surgeon.

The patient, a child of 14 years, was attacked by myxoedema at the age of five as an after effect of scarlet fever. His physical and intellectual growth stopped. Six months ago Dr. Veronoff, in the presence of nineteen doctors, grafted on the child's neck the right lobe of the thyroid gland of a large baboon. Almost immediately the patient began to improve and a marked development took place in body and mind. While formerly the patient was pathetic and stupid he became active and quick-witted.

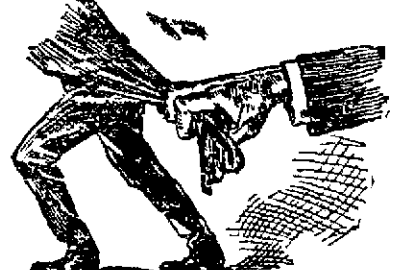

Members of the academy consider the operation of great importance and tend to believe that the great possibilities of constructive surgery are indicated by Dr. Alexis Carrel of New York.

Special interest in the case lies in the fact that this is said to be the first time that the grafting of an organ from a lower animal to a human had been successful.

Dr. Veronoff attributes his success to the use of a special method of operation of experiments in grafting. In the opinion of those who have followed the experiments, many cretins condemned to a mere vegetative existence may, under the new treatment, be transformed to useful members of society.

Psoriasis Cured by a Famous Remedy

Most Troublesome Skin Disease is Promptly Checked

Get a good skin cure on psoriasis by using S. S. S. the famous blood purifier. These extending patches may have defiled everything else; you may be discouraged but let S. S. S. bathe your blood and you will quickly observe a wonderful change.

S. S. S. exerts a dominating influence in the myriad of blood vessels that compose the skin. Its principal action is to assist in that wonderful process whereby the broken down cells in the skin and their deadened nerve threads are rebuilt by new material from a purified and quickened blood stream.

throughout the body. From the time that S. S. S. enters the blood it has traversed the entire system in about three minutes. Its action is therefore very rapid, never lets up, it is used with the same co-operative spirit.

S. S. S. has been a marvel to overcome every form of skin trouble and for a finely illustrated descriptive treatise on the skin write to The Swift Specific Co., 102 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist but refuse all substitutes.

OFFICIAL ACCUSED OF ATTACK GETS SETBACK

HONOLULU, T. H., July 1.—Judge Judge Charles F. Clemens of the United States District Court rejected yesterday

application of counsel for Jeff McCann, United States District Attorney that hearing of McCann's application for dismissal of an indictment against him charging assault with a deadly weapon be transferred to United States District Judge Sanford E. Dole. Counsel for McCann charged prejudice against Judge Clemens.

Hearing on application for dismissal of the indictment, on the ground that the grand jury which returned was illegally drawn, was ordered continued today.

Keeping Up With Uncle Sam

In the last thirty-seven years of national progress, the Bell Telephone has played an important part.

Out of the public's demand for universal service has grown the Bell system, covering the entire country with one great intercommunicating system.

Today there are more than 7,500,000 telephones connected by 14,000,000 miles of wire in the Bell system, and every day the service is extended to meet the ever increasing needs of the people.

Every Bell Telephone is a Long Distance Station

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

MESERVE'S WITHDRAWAL GIVES FREDERICKS LEAD IN THE SOUTH

"Writing In" Name of Congressman Will Not Suffice; Registration as Republicans Necessary

In the judgment of the well informed Republicans of this city, the withdrawal of Edwin Meserve as a candidate for governor gives John D. Fredericks a wonderful lead south of Tehachapi. One member of the party who recently made a trip south in the interest of another candidate said yesterday that when he was in Los Angeles and San Diego he found sentiment strongly in favor of Fredericks, although Meserve had a large following who were for him first and Fredericks next. With the withdrawal of his favorite this element will be for Fredericks and it is confidently predicted the south will be almost a unit in favor of his selection as the candidate.

In connection with changes of registration it is announced in news from Sacramento that nearly 200 Progressives have changed their registration to Republican during the last month, a large number of them being women. The Republicans now lead in Sacramento county with 11,312 Progressives 10,454, Democrats 7034, Socialists 1029, Prohibitionists 135, declined to state 719. Total 30,135.

Justice E. C. Hart of Sacramento, candidate for re-election to the position of Associate Justice of the Third District Court of Appeal, has filed his nominating papers. Everts A. Hayes, candidate for congress in the Eighth District, Republican; Nicholas J. Pendergast, Progressive candidate for the assembly in the Twenty-seventh District, San Francisco, and Bradley V. Sargent, candidate for Justice of the Second District Court of Appeal, a Democrat of Monterey county, also filed.

The Sacramento County Republican Club and the Young Men's Republican Club have endorsed three candidates for the county central committee to be elected at the August primary. The men endorsed will serve until the primary. Headquarters have been opened and an active campaign will be conducted.

Managers for John D. Fredericks plan the organization of women's political clubs to work in his interest in San Francisco and other parts of Northern California.

Federicks' headquarters were opened in the Westbank building in Sacramento today.

Chester F. Rowell, Progressive candidate for United States Senator, delivered an address last night at a reception tendered him in the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley.

George A. The Smith political manager for Francis V. Keessling, announces a whirlwind campaign commencing at Petaluma tomorrow evening, to continue until the night of August 24. It will embrace a two weeks tour of the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and through Southern California. Keessling will open headquarters in Los Angeles.

More than 100 railroad men have endorsed the candidacy of James M. Murphy, progressive aspirant for secretary of state. The meeting was held in this city Monday night.

Supporters of Sidney M. Van Wyck, Democratic candidate for governor, will hold a meeting in San Francisco tonight in the new city hall.

James Hoyle, manager of the Terminal Hotel in San Francisco, brother of former Governor Hoyle of San Quentin, is a tentative candidate for the State Senate from the 11th district on the Republican ticket.

The demands upon Congressman Knowland for public addresses are all the more than he can fill. From Los Angeles to Sonoma almost in successive days requires prompt traveling. He has already delivered addresses to conventions of widely different character, many of which had no political trend, and has always found the vital thing to say.

He has such a vast fund of information gained through earnest study of public questions, particularly for ten years in national and legislative affairs, and acquaintance with notable men, that he is ready to illuminate any subject, says the Humboldt Standard.

A good illustration of this aptitude was his address before the unique Willow Tree club of Oakland, an organization composed of men with one or more artificial limbs each. He cited the case of the late Dr. Henderson, who studied law and made notable success at the bar, made a national career after losing a leg at Corinth, winning his way to Congress, and becoming speaker of the House.

"California is badly in need of a new constitution," Chester H. Rowell, candidate for the United States Senate, at a reception tendered him by the local Progressives last evening at the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley. "The present instrument under which we labor is antiquated and unwieldy. This is shown in no way better than by the fact that we are confronted with an average of twelve amendments to it every year, on a night."

Rowell spoke at some length on the amendments to be voted upon this fall. He declared that, on the whole, any progressive men with one or more artificial limbs each. He cited the case of the late Dr. Henderson, who studied law and made notable success at the bar, made a national career after losing a leg at Corinth, winning his way to Congress, and becoming speaker of the House.

"California is badly in need of a new constitution," Chester H. Rowell, candidate for the United States Senate, at a reception tendered him by the local Progressives last evening at the Hotel Shattuck in Berkeley. "The present instrument under which we labor is antiquated and unwieldy. This is shown in no way better than by the fact that we are confronted with an average of twelve amendments to it every year, on a night."

Rowell spoke at some length on the amendments to be voted upon this fall. He declared that, on the whole, any progressive men with one or more artificial limbs each. He cited the case of the late Dr. Henderson, who studied law and made notable success at the bar, made a national career after losing a leg at Corinth, winning his way to Congress, and becoming speaker of the House.

Ten candidates for this position have shied their hats in the ring. E. A. Richmond of Alameda and Edward Wainwright, incumbent of Longmont, started the contest and were followed by eight others who secured blanks from the county clerk's office which they are now circulating.

Even Jack Spratt, of nursery-rhyme fame, didn't have any trouble because his wife couldn't do Republican politics, and he could do no Democrat—and the rhyme doesn't recite the fact of any other sprats that could do only chosen either. Wherefore, H. C. Petray, and school board and committee for the office of county superintendent of schools, is a political Jack Spratt that the county clerk's office has charged by one point. Mr. Petray is a Republican. Mrs. Petray is a Democrat. Their son is a Progressive. If Petray sings to the tune of the rhyme, he and son they get behind him they say they it be false to their own parties!

BOTH DIVORCED; BOTH REWEDDED

Harry H. Hewlett and Former Mrs. Adela Burbank on Honeymoon.

Undaunted by former matrimonial shipwrecks, and confident that the experiment this time will be a success, Harry Harper Hewlett and his bride, who was Mrs. Adela Burbank, both recent figures in divorce suits, are now on their honeymoon, following a quick trip to Martinez yesterday and a wedding ceremony performed by Justice of the Peace C. H. Hayden.

The wedding is the aftermath to two divorce suits that attracted considerable attention in the Alameda county superior court. Hewlett, last April, was divorced by Adella J. Hussey-Hewlett, in a suit in which she charged him with "drunkenness, brutality, joy riding with other women, physical assaults and wilful failure to provide."

Mrs. Burbank was divorced earlier, it being in 1912 that her case came into court. She attempted suicide after a quarrel with her husband, the affair, which was given widespread publicity, finally ending in a legal separation. A queer coincidence is that Hewlett's first wife and his bride of yesterday bear the names of Adela and Adella.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alexander McBean of Stockton, and is a nephew of H. Hewlett, financier and president of the First National Bank of San Joaquin County. The first marriage of Hewlett and Mrs. Adella J. Hussey was a big society event in Stockton, and took place in April, 1908.

The attempted suicide of Adela Burbank in Oakland occurred at the home of her mother. Her pet dog, smelling the fumes of gas in her room, barked, arousing the family, and saving her life.

GROUND DULY BROKEN FOR TURKISH PAVILION

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—With Maurice Hall, consular representative in San Francisco of the Ottoman empire, in charge of the ceremonies, ground was broken today for the Turkish pavilion at the exposition. The program included addresses by exposition officials, the raising of Turkey's flag by Zia Mufit Bey, a young Turkish nobleman and the presentation of the deed to the site. Turkish residents of the city participated in the event.

The Turkish pavilion will be one of the most picturesque buildings at the fair. It will be of Oriental architecture and will contain representative exhibits of the Ottoman empire.

British-American citizens of California are subscribing generously to the British participation fund being gathered by the state branch of the British-American exposition committee. More than $10,000 was pledged at a single meeting of the organization.

The dedication of Hawaii's building has been postponed from tomorrow to next Tuesday. John Effinger of Honolulu, exposition commissioner from Hawaii, said that $100,000 would be spent on the building and exhibits. He will superintend the opening of the building for the construction of the building.

DECIDES TITLE DISPUTE BETWEEN MAN AND WIFE

A dispute between L. Jacob Busch and Josephine Busch over the possession of a house at 682 Thirtieth street was decided this morning by Judge Stanley A. Smith in favor of the husband, who was granted $25 rental and technical ownership. In his complaint Busch alleged that he leased the house on April 12 to Mary Sanford and that she had not paid the rent. Later Busch installed another tenant in the place, and he claimed that on May 25 Josephine Busch made forcible entry and dispossessed the second tenant. Busch accordingly brought suit, jointly against Mary Sanford and Josephine Busch.

COMPLAINS OF POOR FIRE PROTECTION

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Complaint has been made to the railroad commission by Clara J. Wilson of Richmond, who alleges that McEwen Bros., a corporation, operates an inadequate fire protection plant, which supplies water to people in a section of the city. The matter will be heard at a later date.

GOVERNMENT ENDS SUIT AGAINST NAVAL STORES

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—Action against the suspended American Naval Stores Company was ended yesterday with the dismissal in the federal court here of the government's dissolution suit against the company. The order dissolved the suit.

NEW MEMBERS.

An additional fifty members have been secured by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce within the past few days as a result of its membership campaign, in which it is hoped to increase the membership to 2500.

THE NEW MEMBERS.

An additional fifty members have been secured by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce within the past few days as a result of its membership campaign, in which it is hoped to increase the membership to 2500.

THE NEW MEMBERS.

An additional fifty members have been secured by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce within the past few days as a result of its membership campaign, in which it is hoped to increase the membership to 2500.

THE NEW MEMBERS.

An additional fifty members have been secured by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce within the past few days as a result of its membership campaign, in which it is hoped to increase the membership to 2500.

H. C. CAPWELL CO. — CLAY, FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH STREETS — H. C. CAPWELL CO.

JULY CLEARANCE SALES

Offer Savings on Week-end Holiday Needs

A Special Purchase of Wash Dresses $6.95

In New Fall Styles—Worth to $10.50

Extremely smart summer frocks with many new style points noticeable among them. The new fine stripes, the plain crepes and pretty flowered effects that typify summer, made with long Russian tunics, picturesque fan tunics, ripple bottom styles and other new style suggestions that are most pleasing in their effect. White, black-and-white and the delicate shades of summer. Come in and see these new dresses at their small July price.

New $6.50 White Dress Skirts—$3.75

Made of splendid quality ratine in the fashionable Russian tunic styles and trimmed with washable buttons. Dressy skirts to wear with the lingerie blouses. Exceptional bargains.

July Savings on Silk Petticoats

$3.95 Jersey Top Petticoats

Splendid Jersey Petticoats, with fitted tops and messaline line pleated flounces in various styles. In Alice Blue, Copenhagen, Old Rose, Lavender, Taupe, Navy, Purple, Burnt Orange, Black.

$5.00 Jersey Top Petticoats

A broken assortment of beautiful high-grade Silk Petticoats. Pleated messaline flounces. A wide choice of the darker shades. An unusual Silk Petticoat bargain.

Other Silk Petticoats Range in their Reduced Prices from $1.95 up

Crepe de Chine Petticoats at July Prices

Samples and odd lots of these dainty petticoats in delicate shades for evening wear. Exquisitely combined with beautiful laces, insertions and ribbons. A large assortment in the July Clearance at ONE-THIRD LESS THAN REGULAR PRICES.

July Bargains for Men

Closing Out Our Manhattan Shirts

At Big Reductions

Our entire stock of Men's Manhattan Shirts at low clearance prices. Fresh new stock, strictly up-to-date patterns and the fact that we have carried the most complete line of Manhattan Shirts in Oakland, insures the greatest variety of choice among patterns, colors, styles and weaves.

Plain or pleated bosom and soft front styles with soft, turn-back cuffs.

The materials are solette, woven madras, cotton crepe, Russian cords and crepes with silk stripes—also pure silk.

Regular $1.50 Manhattan Shirts ..... $1.20

Regular $2.00 Manhattan Shirts ..... $1.55

Regular $2.50 Manhattan Shirts ..... $1.95

Regular $3.00 Manhattan Shirts ..... $2.15

Regular $3.50 Manhattan Shirts ..... $2.65

Regular $5.00 Manhattan Shirts ..... $3.15

Special Purchase of 100 Dozen Men's Neckties

Regular 50c Values for

A high-grade line of ties made of the best imported and domestic silks, in the richest of patterns, both subdued and brighter tones. Every man's taste can be satisfied in color, pattern and style. Cross stripes, solid colors and fancy effects. Two of the most fashionable shapes—one full cut with wide French fold end, the other tubular reversible shape, same on both sides.

Men's 25c Sox, 19c Pair

Park Mill Silk Lisle Sox with reinforced heel and toes. Looks and feels like silk but is more durable. Colors, blue, tan and gray.

Men's $1.50 Bathing Suits, $1.15

Black or blue backgrounds with red or white trimming. Extra special value.

10% Discount on All Other Furnishings Except Restricted Lines.

Agents for Butterick Patterns

H. C. Capwell Co.

THE LACE HOUSE

A Special July Purchase of Girls' White Dresses

Two Saving Prices: $2.48 and $3.48

Only a limited number in the lot in 8 to 14 year sizes, but they're the daintiest, prettiest, best value Dresses at the prices we've ever seen.

Fresh, white voiles, lawns and sheer lingerie materials made in a great diversity of styles. Combined with dainty laces and embellished with fine clusters of tucks. All with the latest style set-in sleeves, necks with cunning lace yokes and some have ribbon sashes. Many of them represent prices of about half what they would ordinarily cost.

Women's Outing Hats

Specially Priced for the Fourth

Regular 98c Hats Thursday and Friday Only 49c

A choice lot of white linen, duck and ratine hats for outing wear have been specially reduced for THURSDAY AND FRIDAY ONLY to 49c. Sailor and drooping effects with neat ribbon bands.

New White Satin and Felt Hats

The very newest midsummer styles for smart street and outing wear. Soft or stiff crowns with sailor brims; corduroys with patent leather, plain white or stitched bands; white felt hats in fifteen different styles.

Prices $1.95 up

July Specials Toy Shop

in the For Boys—

A Scooter—Special at 89c

A well-made SCOOTER to add to the Fourth of July fun. Has malleable steel frame and shock absorbing spring in hanger. No castings.

For Girls—

$1.75 Collapsible Doll Cart—$1.25

Splendidly made and finished in bicycle enamel. Has three bow hood. Same cart without a hood, regularly priced at $1.00, special at 70c.

New Fall Royal Society Packages

Complete new fall line came yesterday and is now ready for you. Many new ideas in Vests, Lingerie, Children's Apparel, Center Pieces, Scarfs, Stamped and ready for embroidery. Come in and see the new ideas. Prices 25c and up.

Many New July Bargains in the Basement Store

PRINTERS' INK IS ADVENTISTS' ALLY

$2,000,000 Worth of Literature Published Yearly by Church.

sets of $1,679,175.61, in which about 700 persons are employed. Weeks recently returned from India, having labored as a missionary in that country.

Elder John O. Loomis of Oakland spoke in the pavilion last night on "The Thousand Three Hundred Days." He said the Bible reckoning of prophetic time is a day for a year, and that the great time period of Daniel 8:14 extends from 457 B. C. to 1844.

"I had the pleasure of traveling with the first man who preached the prophecy we are studying tonight," he added. "His name was Joseph Bates."

"William Miller, who was an infidel before he began to study the prophecies of the Bible, correctly figured the time of the second coming of Christ at 1844."

Seventh Day Adventist youth," said Messrs. Maguire, national secretary of the Young People's Society of Missionary Workers, said the young people in the big tent enrolled yesterday for the "standard of attainment," a study of de-monstrations, history and geography.

Elder J. N. Loughborough, 45-year-old pioneer, told how the story gained credence that early Adventists wore ascension robes. "Ten young women put on long socks," he said, "and climbed to the roof of the house, shouting at the top of their voices. 'We are robed and ready.'"

Prof. M. E. Cady, educational secretary for the Pacific Union Conference, urged young people at this morning's meeting to choose their life work early, and make thorough preparation. "Be a honey bee," he said, "not a butterfly."

BLIND ORATOR TO SPEAK. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, has just returned from a trip abroad and will speak in the Young People's Society pavilion, evening at Rice's Institute, Oakland, on the subject of "The Kingdom of God is Within You."

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents for additional info.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—When Mrs. J. R. Osborne, the noted blind orator, returned home from the country last night she found that burglars had ransacked the house and had taken $700 worth of loot. The burglars gained entrance by prying open a rear door.

Mrs. C. Bennett, 49-B Valencia street, reported to the police today that burglars had entered her home and had taken $50 worth of jewelry.

EXTENSION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Account 4th of July, train No. 304 which leaves First and Third streets at 7:00 p. m. will be extended through to Santa Cruz and Boulder Creek on Saturday, July 4th. See our agents t for 30 days to hear complaints and requests for the equalization and adjustment of assessments established by City Assessor George E. Gross and his assistants.

CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK
N. E. CORNER 14th AND BROADWAY
BRANCH, 49th AND TELEGRAPH AVE.

KAHN'S
THE LARGEST BOUTIQUE

Flag Sale
Thursday and Friday

All Flags

1/4 to 1/2 Off
Regular Price

MANY TO ATTEND Y. W. C. A. MEETING

Large Oakland Delegation Is Promised at Annual Pacific Coast Conference.

A large delegation from the Oakland Young Women's Christian Association is preparing to attend the annual Pacific coast conference of the organization, which will be held from August 14 to 24, at Astoria, one mile from Pacific Grove, in the edge of the pine forest near Moss Beach. Outings on the seashore and to the various points of interest on the Monterey peninsula will be interspersed with the work of the conference.

Miss Helen Alling Davis, executive secretary of the department of field work, will attend as conference executive from the national board. Associated with her will be Miss Mary Louise Allen, executive of the publication department; Miss Edith N. Stanton, office executive and director of the bureau of reference; Miss Helen Thoburn, editorial secretary of the department; Miss Edith Schooley, executive secretary of conference grounds; Miss Lillian E. Jones, executive secretary for Pacific coast field committee.

Among the teachers for the Bible study classes will be Rev. Ryland Knight, pastor of the First Baptist church of Clarksville, Tenn.; Rev. Edwin P. Ryland, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist church of Hollywood, Cal.; Miss Helen Thoburn and Miss Martha Chickering, extension secretaries of the San Francisco Association.

MOOSE LODGES TO HEAR KNOWLAND AT BIG OUTING

Nearly 200 members of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Fruitvale and Hayward lodges of Moose will leave on a special train Friday evening to spend July 4 at Monterey and July 5 at Santa Cruz. A big July 4 celebration will be held at Monterey under the auspices of the California Moose Assembly and Moose lodges from all sections of the state will be represented. An interesting program has been prepared, and among the features will be a civic and military parade in which the uniform bodies of the east bay lodges will take part, literary and musical exercises, with Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, past dictator of Alameda lodge, as the orator of the day, athletic events and a musical gala. Knowland will accompany the east bay delegation.

The committee of arrangements intends to make the excursion among the most successful ever given by Oakland lodge, which is in active charge. The drift team in charge of Captain C. A. Sullivan, the band in charge of C. D. Smith and the drum corps headed by Captain R. Davis have been rehearsing to make a showing in the parade. These uniform bodies are among the best in the state and have taken numerous prizes. A benefit old-time fair was given for them last Friday evening in the club rooms at Twelfth and Clay streets and a handsome sum of money was realized. Sheriff Frank Barnett, president of the Mooseheart Legion, will also be among the guests.

TO STUDY OAKLAND R. R. SYSTEMS FOR EXPOSITION

The American Association of Museums which is holding its annual convention of New York will meet in Oakland in 1915. Word of the association's decision to make this city its headquarters in 1915 was received this morning by Joseph E. Caine of the Oakland Commercial Club in a communication from Dr. C. P. Wilcomb, curator of the Oakland museum. Several hundred delegates, including men of prominence in research work throughout the United States will attend the convention which will be one of the most important of those that will meet in Oakland in exposition year.

MUSEUM ASSOCIATION TO MEET IN OAKLAND IN 1915

In order that they will be in a position to handle the huge transcontinental passenger traffic during the time of the fair, 40 traveling passenger agents will study passenger service conditions on the Pacific coast. The agents will be paid to the working of the railroad systems in Oakland. The American Association of Traveling Passenger Agents has accepted the invitation of the Oakland Commercial Club to spend a whole day on this side of the bay and October 15 has been set aside as Oakland day. The 1914 convention of passenger agents association will be held in San Francisco in October.

300 FEDERALISTS KILLED IN AMBUSH

Constitutionalists Surprise Detachment of Troops

President Wilson Hopeful of Success of Mediation

La Paz, Lower California, June 30, by wireless to San Diego, July 1.—According to authoritative reports received today, a detachment of 300 Federal troops that recently arrived at La Paz from Guaymas was ambushed by Constitutionalists near San Diego, Lower California. Ninety were killed, the remainder routed. All mines in this vicinity had been shut down. The cruiser South Dakota has been relieved at Mazatlan by the cruiser Denver, the South Dakota proceeding to La Paz to coal, preparatory to returning to San Diego.

WILSON RETICENT.
After a conference with Secretary Bryan, President Wilson authorized the statement today that the Mexican situation was as favorable as it may be until the existing factions get together. Further the President refused to discuss the Mexican situation.

While no statement was made at the White House regarding the recess of the mediation conference, officials close to the President said he was very hopeful that Huerta, Carranza and Villa would agree on a definite plan for settling the internal affairs of Mexico.

The President still is hopeful that mediation will bring about peace, and he believes that it already has accomplished much good.

REFUGEES DEPART.
Sir Lionel Corden, British minister in Mexico City, has advised the embassy here that a special train bearing Mexican refugees will leave Mexico City today. The plan to carry the refugees to Puerto Mexico has been abandoned, and they will be taken to Vera Cruz. The British subjects are leaving the Mexican capital, on the advice of the British minister.

CARRANZA'S WORD AWAITED.
WASHINGTON, July 1.—Next moves in the attempt to restore peace in Mexico through diplomacy depended today upon Carranza's attitude toward sending delegates to confer with members of the Huerta cabinet.

At the mediation conference, Carranza's attitude toward sending delegates to confer with members of the Huerta cabinet was the subject of discussion. Carranza had decided to take an indefinite recess. It was assumed that the Washington government would continue its efforts to persuade the Constitutionalists to enter into some form of negotiations with representatives of the Mexico City administration.

Long negotiations would have to await an answer from Carranza could not be determined. Several weeks might elapse, it was suggested, before the Constitutionalists leader could consult with all his military chiefs over the proposal for the conference. It was feared in some quarters that reported dissension in the ranks of the revolutionaries might cause delay in completing the referendum. Villa's victory at Zacatecas, it was asserted, had not served to bring the disputing factions together. Hope was held out, however, for an agreement to a conference, by reports that Villa was inclined to favor peaceable settlement of the revolution's internal affairs.

Urgent arguments have been transmitted to Carranza through his agents in Washington outlining the tremendous responsibility for their country's future resting on the Constitutionalists. They have been urged, it is said, to suggest to their chief possibilities that might follow American intervention in Mexico. Because of strong influences directed at restoration of order in the southern republic, Carranza's permits in Washington that Carranza and his general will consent to a conference. That would involve a change in the plan of Guadalupe, the Constitutionalists' declarations of principles.

MEETING DOUBTFUL.
Administration officials today declined to discuss the question of whether any meeting between the warring factions was likely to result in any concrete agreement for the establishment of a provisional government. Nevertheless, hope was expressed that if the two delegates were brought together they would find means of reaching peace terms. The Constitutionalists, it was recognized, would be in position to demand marked concessions.

Plans for the meeting places of the Huerta and Carranza delegates if negotiations are agreed upon, were indefinite today. Probably some place other than Niagara Falls will be chosen. Secretary Bryan, it was expected today, would instruct the American delegates as to whether they should return to Washington while the mediators remained in recess.

Movements of French and German cruisers in Gulf waters were discussed here today in connection with suggestions from Vera Cruz that Huerta's family, and perhaps the dictator himself, would take refuge on one of the vessels. The cruiser men reported to have sailed for Puerto Mexico, Gulf terminals of the Transatlantic line to Mexico City. Constitutionalists here have declared that their forces are prepared to cut the line if Huerta attempts to leave the capital.

Carranza's agents here, after a conference, made efforts to get in communication with him, but his provisional capital in Monterey. They said they had no report on the progress of the plan to submit the proposal of the meeting with the Huerta delegates to his generals under the plan of Guadalupe.

Secretary Bryan would not discuss the Bryan conference today. So far as is known no instructions as to leaving have been sent to the American delegates.

MRS. MADERO PASSIVE.
AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, July 1.—Mrs. Francisco I. Madero, widow of the former president of Mexico, will take no part in the mediation conference, according to a letter received from her today by Jorge I. Orozco, one of the Constitutionalists' leaders here. Orozco wrote her recently asking her to use her influence in healing the breach. In letter from Aubrey Park, N. J., she stated that she would take no steps because of her ignorance of the matters at issue.

"Furthermore, as you are aware," she

COMPLETE JULY 4 PROGRAM LIVERMORE READY FOR DAY

EUREKA AND HER COURT—LIVERMORE FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION; LEFT TO RIGHT, MISS MAYME GALLAGHER, MISS HENRIETTA WAGONER, MISS DOLLIE MCKOWN, MISS ANNE WAGONER, MISS ELLA CONNORAN AND MISS MAY WENTE, WHO WILLE EUREKA.

Details of the program for the celebration of the Fourth of July at Livermore are ready to be announced. The general committee, of which Supervisor D. J. Murphy is the chairman, has practically completed its work.

The celebration will begin upon the arrival of the special "boosters" train from Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, at 11 o'clock in the morning. This train will leave First and Broadway, Oakland, at 9 a. m. and will return the same night.

The parade, under the command of Grand Marshal Dave McDonald, will move upon the arrival of the train at Livermore. There will be two brass bands and many drum corps, and Colonel D. A. Smith of the Fifth regiment will attend with his staff. There will be several companies of that regiment in line.

Many fraternal organizations will send their drill and drum corps to take part, among them the Eagles, the Elks and the Foresters. The visiting members of fraternal organizations will be the guests of the brothers in Livermore during the celebration, and they will take an important part in the festivities.

YOUNG WOMEN TO HELP.

The floats will be furnished by the people of Livermore and the young ladies of the town are bending their efforts toward making these a most striking feature. Miss Marie Fennon will be goddess of liberty, surrounded by her escort representing the various states. Miss May Wente will be Eureka, and will be attended by her court. Many other floats are in preparation and this will be a most attractive part of the parade.

At the close of the parade the literary exercises will be held at the grandstand at the flag pole. Hon. W. R. Donahue will be orator of the day. William McDonald will be the chairman, and Professor D. Martin will read the Declaration of Independence.

The afternoon will furnish attractions for everybody. There will be various athletic events and dancing at the Sweeney opera house, but the big attraction will be the broncho busting. For this there are already twenty entries, many of the riders coming from far parts of the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, while the ranges of Mount Hamilton and Mount Diablo have sent their best men to take part.

The evening will be devoted to fireworks, dancing and a parade of the horrors. Sunday will have its attractions. There will be a baseball game between the Livermore and Niles teams. An automobile parade and automobile races will take up part of the day, and the finals of the broncho busting will occupy most of the afternoon.

Special rates have been given by both roads and tickets on the special train of the Southern Pacific Company will be good for return for five days.

For the first time in the history of the county a blacksmith has been certified as a special teacher in the county school department. The certification was made this week, following the teachers' examinations held by the county board of education, and announcement of the winning candidate will be made by Superintendent George W. Erick in a few days. A printer was also certified, the second in the county to gain a right to teach in any county or city schools. The blacksmith certification is one of two or three in the state. Both teachers certified will seek employment in the new Oakland Manual Training and Commercial High School.

CERTIFY BLACKSMITH
As Special Teacher
For County Schools

The teachers were examined not only in practical work, but in statutory academic subjects, declared Superintendent G. W. Erick. "And both, I am informed, passed well. The examinations show the new trend toward vocational education, and are therefore of interest. Alameda county is the third largest county, from the school standpoint, in the state, and the examinations created some little interest."

But few academic teachers will be certified this year, according to the county board.

SEEK LAND WORTH THREE MILLIONS

Heirs of Judge Solomon Heydenfeldt Begin Suit to Establish Title.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Suit brought to establish title to San Francisco property valued at $3,000,000 is now before the Superior Court of San Francisco through the efforts of the heirs of the late Judge Solomon Heydenfeldt, a noted litigation lawyer. The parties to the suit, which involves two city blocks, adjacent to the Southern Pacific depot and bounded by Fifth, Seventh, Channel and Hooper streets as well as property between Sacramento and Commercial streets near Drumm street, are the widow of the late jurist and the widow and children of Thomas M. Osmond, a prominent lawyer, who died in 1905. Mrs. Heydenfeldt and her children are seeking to recover the land under the state reversionary title. It is alleged that Osmond failed to inform the plaintiffs that this land was an asset of the estate of the late judge.

The title is now in the hands of Adela Osmond, Osmond's daughter, and her husband, James C. Osmond, a well known engineer. The estate of Heydenfeldt was valued at $3,000,000 at the time of his death in 1880 down to 1901. There were numerous appeals to the Supreme Court, and thousands of dollars were expended. Two families claimed Heydenfeldt as their heir. For eleven years the two families of children and the two women who claimed to be lawful widows fought before the courts for the immense estate.

TERMS OF COMPROMISE.

Finally, when it appeared there was a danger of all the property becoming dissipated, a compromise was arrived at. The compromise was that the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, were to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree of the court, the plaintiffs, Heydenfeldt and his heirs, are to receive a score, were allotted specified proportions of what was left of the estate. The compromise was signed by Thomas M. Osmond, who represented the plaintiffs, and Heydenfeldt and Zeila O. Heydenfeldt. He had died with a $600,000 fortune, and the compromise was signed in pursuance of the agreement he was given, through a deed to his clerk, G. B. Manroff, certain real estate and the residue of the estate. In the decree of the court, the words were added "now known as the estate of Solomon Heydenfeldt, deceased, under the agreement and decree

A black and white portrait of a woman, likely from the early 20th century, framed in an ornate oval. She is shown from the chest up, wearing a light-colored, patterned dress with a high collar and a dark, possibly fur, hat. The portrait is set against a background of decorative scrollwork and floral motifs, including a small diamond-shaped ornament in the upper right and a larger, more complex design in the lower right. The overall style is characteristic of early 20th-century book design or advertising.

[illegible]

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Hussey of Berkeley, with their children, left Monday for Pacific Grove where they will spend several weeks. They will enjoy a number of motor trips during their stay.

* * *

TO VISIT YOSEMITE

Mrs. George Porter Baldwin with Miss Helen Edott and Miss Carmen Chiradani will leave next Monday for a fortnight's visit to Yosemite. They will be included among the gayeties of the house par-

ASTORIA
For Infants and Children
Use For Over 30 Years
ears heard
the nature of Prof. H. H. H. H.

INSUBORDINATE Daughter
PAULO ALTO, July 1.—Miss Mildred
Woodpeck of Gilman street of this city, and Edmund Byron Reuter of Chicago, Ill., were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. D. Dickson, Rev. E. Dickson, who is occupying the pulpit for the Rev. Walter Hay. Miss Woodpeck is a graduate of Palo Alto high school and also of Stanford University where she was elected member of the education department in 1907. She

PUPPI LEADS SEARCHERS TO BABE LOST IN WOODS

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 1.—After leading her 3-year-old mistress into the woods, Tess, a collie pup, returned home and proved the hero of a search for the little girl, who was Alta Broyles, daughter of L. E. Broyles. The dog led the posse to the child, who was curled up on

Always bears
the Signature of Chas. H. Hitchcock

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 1.—After leading her 3-year-old mistress into the woods, Tess, a collie pup, returned home and proved the hero of a search for the little girl, who was Alta Broyles, daughter of L. E. Broyles. The dog led the posse to the child, who was curled up on

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND ARE GUESTS OF THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE AT IDORA PARK

EAST BAY COMMUNITIES EMPTY MULTITUDE INTO JOY LANES

Tribune Day Goes Down in History As Fifteen Hours of Uninterrupted Happiness

No. 45,025 WINS CYCLECAR JAMES SAUNDERS LUCKY

James Saunders, quartermaster of the steamer China, is the winner of THE TRIBUNE cyclecar. Saunders, whose home is at 3020 Grove street, and who is ashore on a vacation, held Ticket No. 45,025, the second drawn from the big pile on the amphitheater stage, where the drawing was held. The first number drawn was not called for.

Leo Rosenhahn, age 8, made the drawings. Blindfolded, the lad was led to the stage before the committee of judges, and one by one he drew the tickets from the pile. Ten tickets were drawn, lest the first ones should have been uncalled. The second number drawn, however, after a ten-minute wait, got the car.

The cyclecar was on exhibition at the park throughout TRIBUNE DAY, and was given to the winner immediately after the drawing.

One hundred thousand persons were guests of THE TRIBUNE at Idora Park yesterday.
One hundred thousand happy men, women and children gloried in a tremendous celebration.
It was TRIBUNE DAY.
It was Idora Park day.
It was Oakland day.
It was the biggest day the bay counties have ever known.
From Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and a host of other cities and towns a great line of eager parents and children wended their way to the big amusement park.
There, at the gates they exchanged their admission tickets for free concession strips, and then the fun commenced.

FUN IS FURIOUS.

It waxed fast and furious from 10 in the morning, when the gates were opened, until midnight, when ticket No. 45,025 was drawn and the $430 Mercury cyclecar was given to James Saunders, quartermaster of the steamship China.
He held the lucky number awarded him at the gate and today is riding about in his TRIBUNE gift.

Idora has never seen such a crowd. And Oakland has never seen a better day. A happier and better behaved lot of men, women and children, as those 75,000.

They coasted down mountain slide, with laughs and screams of merriment, ate "dogs" or "chickies"—call them what you may—in the yard, whirled on the social whirl and indulged in dizzy flights in the Race Through the Clouds and the great

ECHOES WITH LAUGHTER.

The great park echoed with laughter, and the great crowd echoed with the joy that only a day of the great playground can give. Through the merry crowds that wound their way over the lanes and paths of the park wended the Auto Tractor, loaded with its human freight—joyous freight enjoying the fun, every inch of it. THE TRIBUNE drum corps passed in review from the Telegraph avenue gate into the park and marched among the trees of the great joy park.

TRIBUNE DAY PERFECT.

TRIBUNE DAY was perfect. Not an accident marred the daytime glow or the joyous night that followed. Not a sigh or a vestige of disappointment cast a damper on the big celebration, in which THE TRIBUNE acted as host to its thousands of friends.

Great crowds gathered at the gates of the park marched in steadily throughout the day, and greater crowds streamed through those same gates for a second relay of joy during the night, when light, laughter and music reigned.

CONCESSIONS ARE CROWDED.

The concessions rushed with business, showed attendants as happy as the crowds. The throng, enjoying the concessions, were as happy as the concessionaires who sent them another step further on the journey of joy.

Although the day a busy one with mothers and children gathered for enjoyment of the occasion, it was in the evening that Mr. Oakland and his wife, and young Mr. Oakland and Miss Oakland made merry.

It was in the evening, under the firmament of colored lights, that the fun reached its highest pinnacle. Never did the racing coaster speed more merrily. Never did the merry-go-round carry a more delighted crowd. Never did the bears in the big cage gorge themselves heavier with peanuts, donated by a happy crowd. Those same bears finally rolled to their cement caves to sleep, last night, conscious not only of a duty performed, but of still more peanuts to come if they awoke before the trainers clean out the mass of shells that still lay on the floor of the bear caves when the last tired merry-maker stepped aboard the last

CARS BY THE BLOCK.

Block upon block of cars lined Telegraph and Shattuck avenues to carry the happy joy-seekers home. Throughout the evening special electric lights followed an extra schedule arranged by the traction company and park gates was a lesson. For hours THE TRIBUNE guests passed through the portals of mirth, a stream of exultant humanity. Attendants raked in the free tickets, distributed through 1000 stores and the offices of THE TRIBUNE. Other attendants handed to the passing guests free concession passes and cyclecar coupons, entitling the visitors to a chance at the baby auto.

Not a sign was made by the throng. It moved slowly to the goal of enjoyment. The park attendants and special police detail from the Northridge station passing the visitors in the most courteous manner, with the slightest touch or discomfort. Oakland's guardians of the peace entered into the spirit of TRIBUNE DAY with the park attendants and the guests themselves.

The same may be said of the attendants at the concessions. Crowds gathered as if by magic before each amusement spot as the multitude arrived. All were welcomed with smiles and went away smiling.

NONE MISSED ANYTHING.

No one missed anything. Nothing missed anyone. TRIBUNE DAY was the day when all got what they were promised—and a good deal of extra fun and enjoyment in the bargain. On the Oakland cars the greatest crowd arrived in the earlier part of the evening. Then the Berkeley trolleys dropped their freight of mirth seekers, and the Alameda crowds and throngs from the other cities on the east side of the bay gathered for the festival. Steadily all day the stream of humanity poured into the park, and it was 9:30 last night before the last of the visitors came through the gates.

HARTMAN IS FAVORITE.

Not the least among the favored spots during TRIBUNE NIGHT was the great canopied amphitheater, where Fels Hartman and his merry assistants in the Rich Mr. Hoggens' house performed a packed house. Never did the veteran comedian play better than before the multitude of his friends. Never did the chorus girls look prettier, or the music sound more brilliant, than when THE TRIBUNE guests gathered to witness one of the crowning attractions of the evening. As the lights were packed and the space behind the amphitheater was jammed.

The crowds were as happy in the big cage gorge themselves heavier with peanuts, donated by a happy crowd. Those same bears finally rolled to their cement caves to sleep, last night, conscious not only of a duty performed, but of still more peanuts to come if they awoke before the trainers clean out the mass of shells that still lay on the floor of the bear caves when the last tired merry-maker stepped aboard the last

WINK THROUGH SPACE.

In the meantime, high overhead, the cars of the scenic railroad soared as they bore shouting multitudes above the city, swept them in dizzy drops to the bottom of the curved and inclined rails and lifted them again through the weird scenes which decorate the interior of the park's air-line.

PART OF THE GREAT CROWD THAT THROGGED IDORA PARK DURING TRIBUNE DAY (UPPER). BELOW ARE SOME OF THE KID-DIES WHO HAD THE TIME OF THEIR LIVES—WHEN THEY WEREN'T IN THE LOST CHILDREN'S BUREAU.

came to quell noisy patriotism. A continuous crackle of rifle fire issued from the stand where amateur marksmen knocked down clay pipes and rang the bells hidden in the bulwarks of the white targets.

The photograph gallery was also busy throughout the evening. Hundreds gathered to pose in auto and aeroplane before the big camera, while special laboratory forces hurriedly sent out postcard after postcard.

GOING TO THE "DOGS."

The waning stand, where the "dog" and Frankfurter bloomed radiantly, was still a busier scene. Throughout the day miles of Frankfurters, wrapped in hot rolls, vanished to make a TRIBUNE holiday.

End on end, the Frankfurters consumed by the TRIBUNE DAY visitors would have stretched from Idora Park to Alcatraz avenue. A Frankfurter is approximately "four inches long—that is, an Idora Park Frankfurter is—and 40,000 inches tell the tale.

While the crowds ate, talked and laughed the pink lemonade and soda water vendors were not idle. Hundreds of pounds of candy and peanuts by the bushel added to the enjoyment of boys and bears, men, women, children—the whole TRIBUNE DAY host.

There were 100,000 admission tickets taken in at the gate. Each of these measured four inches. That means 400,000 inches.

Four hundred thousand inches means approximately 333,332 feet, this being estimated roughly to afford consideration for a few hundred tickets not dropped in the basket, but trodden under foot in the rush.

At this figure, however, it would mean that, should the tickets be placed end on end, that they would extend from the entrance of the University of California to the heart of Alameda a distance of seven miles.

The concession passes came in a strip nine inches long. On the same basis of calculation and with the same computation of percentage of error and omission this means approximately 15 miles—infact, a little over that, or two lines from Berkeley to Alameda and another stretching from Berkeley back to the park again. There might even be enough tickets left to enter the park and lead to the steps of the theatre, where the crowds yesterday saw the Creation motion pictures, another of the attractions of TRIBUNE DAY.

THE TRIBUNE DAY guests, when finally collected, made a pile as tall as the tallest attendant at the park—and anyone who's seen that special policeman knows his size. Almost the whole bay region knows him today—and THE TRIBUNE's entertainment has won him his fame.

Children to the right. Children to the left. Children all around and about. Happy, laughing, good-natured little ones, all bent on enjoying themselves to the utmost on TRIBUNE DAY.

Yesterday couldn't have been nearer perfect if it had been made to order, and the children made quick response. Never was day more propitious! Blue sky above; the beneficent sun, the checkered shade of stately trees, wide-spreading lawn, and, all about and everywhere, flowers, music and children! Joy went a rioting, but there were plenty of kindly chaperons, a squad of special policemen and a trained nurse in attendance to see that all went well.

As early as 11 o'clock some of the little ones began to grow hungry, as who wouldn't after so much fun? And from that time on until way into the afternoon the grounds were dotted with luncheon parties. "Eats" vied in popularity with the concessions.

And such good, wholesome, inviting, alluring eats! Thick slices of bread and jam, marvelous-looking sandwiches, cream-cake made by mother, and all the rest of it! To be sure there were some of the picknickers who forgot to put up a lunch before starting for Idora, but who could blame them when there was so much pleasure in store? And what if they did forget? It was only to remember that "eats" could be bought. A Coney Island "red hot" which is only another name for a French roll with a freshly-cooked Frankfurter sausage tucked between crusts and slathered with mustard, tasted pretty good yesterday. So did cream waffles and hot coffee, to say nothing of hot peanuts, ice cream, cornucopias, molasses popcorn, pink lemonade and the like.

FUN TO WATCH 'EM.

Between bites it was jolly fun to watch the travelers on the motor train which took one about the grounds. It was even better fun to ride the donkeys or get astride the back of one of the fat Shetland ponies, for matter of that or to be whirled about on the merry-go-round. Then, all the good things tucked away, how hard it was to decide where to go first. A good thing it was that there were many minds on this important subject, so that the patronage was liberally distributed, else there might have been disappointed little ones. As it happened, good-natured youngsters thronged each pleasure booth impartially, awaiting a chance.

Santa Fe Increases Working Hours Again

SAN BERNARDINO, July 1.—Announcing that the reattachment policy put into effect some months ago had been terminated, the Santa Fe Railroad increased today the working hours of the 1000 men in the shops at this point from 47 to 55 hours a week. The increase in working time applies to all departments of the shops.

DEMOCRATS CONFER

Plan to Keep Congress in Session Until Trust Laws Are Enacted.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Senate Democrats planned to hold a local conference here late today, when it is expected a resolution would be adopted announcing to the country Congress' intention to remain in Washington until the administration's anti-trust program has been enacted into law. The conference was called by Majority Leader Kern to act on a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the Democrats of the Senate that trust legislation be enacted at this session.

Belief was expressed here today that the decision to hold a conference was to assure the country that the anti-trust program would be pressed to a final conclusion as soon as possible. While some opposition was expected from Democrats who hold radically different views from those of President Wilson, administration leaders in the Senate were hopeful that the administration resolution would make an attempt to outline a definite plan for legislation.

The reason for this is the fact that two of the measures on the program—the Clayton anti-trust and the railroad securities bills—are still in committee, with no prospect of an earlier report on either of them.

Belief was expressed here today that adoption of the resolution would hasten adjournment of Congress.

New Orleans Lifts Plague Quarantine

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Normal business prevailed here today in blocks of the downtown district which have been under quarantine because it was feared bubonic plague might spread.

The quarantine was declared off last night after stringent measures had been taken for its enforcement.

Fire Ignites Dynamite; One Killed, Three Hurt

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 1.—The Wallace of the local fire department and one fireman were killed and three others seriously injured today by a dynamite explosion in a small blaze. The dynamite stored by a contractor was ignited by a fire in a barn.

Tries Suicide After His Sister Ends Life

GLOBE, Ariz., July 1.—Thomas McLane, 15 years old, yesterday attempted suicide in the same spot where his 16-year-old sister, Catherine, killed herself the night before. Her act was prompted by family troubles, according to a note she left. A guard was placed over Thomas McLane when it seemed that grief might affect his reason, but he eluded his watchers, climbed into the loft, where his sister died, and then shot himself. He is not expected to recover.

AUCTION SALES

J. A. MUNRO & CO., AUCTIONEERS.

1007 Clay street, corner Tenth street, phone Oakland 5611. Will pay highest price paid for merchandise, furniture, etc., or will sell on commission. Sales every Friday.

MEYSEL & MEYSEL, Auctioneers.

Millinery! Millinery! AUCTION SALE!

By order of the assignee (F. H. Bartlett.)

Thursday, July 2, at 11 a. m. Salesroom, 363 and 365 13th st., near Franklin.

Is $5000 up-to-date and reasonable stock, comprising 500 trimmed hats and shapes in endless variety, hundreds of boxes of flowers and foliage, thousands of yards of velvets, brays, ribbons, trillings, wire, ostrich plumes, feathers, swags, etc., 2 trimmable mirrors, hat stands, silent salesman cases, cane receptacles, etc., everything is new and clean and must be sold.

Special Auction Sale

Of the fine furniture, piano, carpets, etc., of W. B. Watson of Berkeley, and others Sale.

Friday, July 3, at 10:30 A. M. At 1007 Clay St., Cor. 10th St. OAKLAND.

Open for inspection Thursday afternoon.

WEST VIRGINIA AND NAVY ARE DRY

John Barleycorn Loses His Grip Ashore and Afloat.

No more is jolly Jack Tar's song, "Yo-ho-ho and a bottle of rum."

The navy went dry today. Secretary Daniels' orders against the officers' wine mess, the use of any alcoholic beverage aboard battleships or in land stations or officers' clubs ashore, was clamped on today. Consequently there was gloom in navy circles today. They felt the new order might be a hardship sometimes, and besides it swept away a time-honored custom. It means practically total abstinence for navy officers and men, at least while on a cruise.

The order is so sweeping that an officer ashore cannot have any liquor, provided he maintains a residence in a naval reservation. Commanding officers are made personally responsible for enforcement of the order.

GRAPE JUICE CONVERSION.

Secretary Daniels' dry order was promulgated some time ago, on recommendation of Surgeon-General Brantley, who felt that liquor aboard battleships was not conducive to the high standard set by the administration. The secretary's early investigations of the navy surprised him, for he found that officers were allowed to buy light wines in the wine mess and to serve it with diners. Likewise his friendship with Secretary of State Bryan, an ardent temperance devotee, is believed to have figured in his dry navy decision.

The official order reads:

"The use of intoxicating liquors for drinking purposes of alcoholic liquors on board any vessel or within any yard or station is strictly prohibited, and commanding officers will be held directly responsible for the enforcement of this order."

Beginning today any officer found in possession of alcoholic liquor on board ship or at any naval station will be guilty of misconduct.

WEST VIRGINIA DRY.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 1.—West Virginia entered the column of prohibition states last night and today its residents are trying to adjust themselves to the new conditions imposed by the Vast act, said to be one of the most drastic prohibitory measures ever enacted in the United States.

"For rent" signs in the windows of nearly 500 buildings throughout the state, where yesterday in evening hours were sold, give evidence of the change wrought by the new law.

Not a sign, however, in any of the important cities and towns. All the marks incident to licensed liquor dealers have disappeared as if by magic.

Voted out of business by a majority of nearly 100,000, the saloonists took the inevitable good naturedly. Many sold their businesses and left the state. Some have turned to other lines of trade.

ANTICIPATE FATAL HOUR.

On the 1200 retail and wholesale liquor establishments in the state June 1, many had closed their doors before the week began. Only a few kept open until the last minute.

The transition was orderly. The deaths due wholly or in part to intoxicants, were reported yesterday from the southern portion of the state.

Nearly $1,000,000 in revenues are taken from the state, counties, cities and towns by the passing of the saloons. To meet this deficit, each district has evolved some other form of taxation.

MOST FAMOUS BAR CLOSSES.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The old town didn't look quite natural today, for "Shoo's" famous "Thirsty" on "Rum Row"—E street—was closed forever. Here in a quaint, dingy little place, Shoomaker has dispensed for more than half a century plain and fancy drinks for the high and the lowly. Many a man prominent in public life has sought respite from political duties over one of Shoo's mint juleps or gin rickeys. Because him the humble government clerk had his "split of beer."

Gin rickeys first saw the light of day at Shoo's. The drink was first ordered by Colonel Shoo, and from that time on it was popular in the country over.

Shoomaker's used to be known as "Con-wee Hall." But two years ago an ardent health officer declared that the forty-year-old webs must be cleared out. They were, but the ancient Thirsty's furnished souvenirs of Lincoln's days, and more modern banners, mementoes and pictures remained to make of the "Thirsty" the quaintest little barroom in the whole country.

The reason for the passing of this historical bar was the fact that its lease expired today, and the place, recently bought by Frank A. Munsey, was taken over as the site for his Washington Times newspaper plant.

Express Employees to Remain in Positions

NEW YORK, July 1.—While the United States Express Company ceases today to be a transportation will be out of employment, as the business of the company will be taken over by the United States Express Company, whose salaries aggregate $5,000,000 a year, 14,000 will continue in the positions they have held.

OFFICE BUILDINGS

BLOCK
OF CITY HALL
AND WASHINGTON STS.
FOR LEASE FROM
 1. Specially designed for doctors and
 2. For all classes of business.
at $34.00
 neat, compressed air, gas, all kinds of janitor and elevator service,
ONLY ON PREMISES.

---

ROOMS TO LET
FURNISHED—Continued

ROOM in pt. family, nr. town and local 699 Sycamore; Oakland 6965.

ROOMS—Hot water, free, bath, molder

Kennelmen, North between 1000 and 1100 front census and car line #13 160.
Spruce st.; phone Berkeley 6068.

3-RM. mod. house; hardwood fl.; heated on car line; Oak. ave. Pied. 6837.

---

ROOMS AND BOARD

---

AA—MONTE VISTA, at 12th and Oak
A sunny house just opened, offers excellent opportunity to a single or married guests, reasonable: S. F. trains to 1000 and 1100, car line #13 160.
Inviting reception, lounging room, grand lake and mountain view, new and wholesome meals; our guests
3 in the kitchen. Oakland 300

AA—ROOM and board for 3 or 4 respectable young men, at reasonable rates at 8851 Genoa st., R.
58th and 59th st., near Grove st.; K.
Route train stop, within half mile.

PRIVATE family; beautifully furnished; running; suitable for refined business men or couple; of Lake Merritt, walking dist.; garage premises; board optional. Merritt 57

ARE you looking for a home? Home cooking, bright sunny room, running water, large yard; block to K. R. a
S. F. COLLINWOOD, 2672 Webster

A—THE HARMONIA, ideal home business men and women; comfort;
table, res. 11th and 14th; ph. 600

AA—LOVELY sunny room, excellent board, Madison st. Oak 2935

LARGE sunny rm. with board and for couple. Oak 2231.

DOUBLE parlors; other rooms; running water; good home board. 2820. Teleph

LARGE room with board, suitable for LARGE sleeping porch and rooms; modern ern home; excellent table. Pled. 3183

ROOM and board; home cooking; modern
Lake view. 1111 First ave., Met. 41

ROOM with or without board for you man; pr. home; reas. 1017 Harrison

ST. ELMO. 3240 Waverly st.—Chan handy; will be run as a first-cla boarding house; excellent table, h cold water, steam heat; near K. R. cars. Phone Lakeside 763.

THE LE BERN.
1489 Harrison st., an ideal home for p ticular people; 4 block from the Oakw
Hotel; private baths, sun deck and

"THE COZYHOM"—Clean, sunny room; family: board, bath, phone, $25 a wk. 624 Sycamore; Lakeside 1557.

VERY desirable, sunny room; running water; good table, home cooking; refrigerator, phone. 1906 Webster.

5572 LAWTON—Beautiful new home. Rockridge district offers large room.

HOUSES—FLATS WANTED

ACCOUNTANTS
AGENTS WANTED
APARTMENTS TO LET ..... 3 and 4
COURTSHIP LAW ..... 1
AUTOMOBILES
AUTOS FOR HIRE ..... 14
BERKELEY APARTMENTS
BICYCLES, MOTORCYCLES ..... 1
BUSINESS CHANCES ..... 1
BUSINESS WANTED ..... 12
CHILDREN BOARDED
CHINESE & JAPANESE EM-PLOYMENT AGENCIES
CLAIRVOYANTS
CONTINGENT REAL ESTATE
DANCING
DAY AND CONTRACT WORK
DETECTIVE AGENCIES
DIAMONDS & OLD GOLD WANTED
DRAGAGE
DRESSMAKING
EDUCATIONAL
ELKHURST REAL ESTATE
FLATS TO LET—FURNISHED
FLATS TO LET—UNFURNISHED
FRATERNAL DIRECTORY ..... 9 and 10
FUNDS
FURNITURE EXCHANGED
FURNITURE FOR SALE ..... 1
FURNITURE STORED ..... 1
FURNITURE MANUFACTURE
FRUITVALE REAL ESTATE ..... 1
HELP WANTED—FEMALE
HELP WANTED—MALE
HORSES AND VEHICLES ..... 1
HOUSES & FLATS WANTED HOUSES
HOUSEMOVES
HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS TO LET ..... 5 and 6
HOUSES FOR SALE ..... 11 and 12
HOUSES TO LET—FURNISHED
HOUSES TO LET—UNFURNISHED
INVALID CHAIRS
INVESTMENTS ..... 1
JUNK
LAUNDRIES
LOST AND FOUND
LOTS FOR SALE ..... 1
LUMBER FOR SALE ..... 1
MESSAGE ..... 1
MONEY—LOANES ..... 1
MONEY TO LOAN—REAL ESTATE ..... 14 and 15
MONEY TO LOAN—GREATLY ..... 1
MONEY LOANED ON AUTOS
MONEY WANTED ..... 1
MOVING AND STORAGE ..... 1
MUSICAL ..... 1
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS ..... 1
MUSICIANS ..... 1
OFFICE BUILDINGS ..... 6 and 7
OAKLAND REAL ESTATE ..... 1
OAKLAND PRINCIPALS ..... 1
OLD GOLD & DIAMONDS WANTED ..... 1
OSTEOPATHY ..... 1
PAPERMAN'S ..... 1
PAPER AND PAPER ..... 1
PARCELS POST ..... 1
PERSONALS ..... 1
PHYSICIANS' DIRECTORY ..... 1
PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS ..... 1
PORTABLE HOUSES ..... 1
POTABLE WATER ..... 1
PROPERTY TO EXCHANGE ..... 1
PROPERTY WANTED ..... 2
ROOFING, ETC. .... 1
ROOMS AND BOARD ..... 1
ROOMS TO LET—UNFURNISHED ..... 1
ROOMS TO LET—FURNISHED ..... 6 and 7
SANITARIAN REAL ESTATE ..... 1
SALESMEN, SOLICITORS ..... 1
SEWING MACHINES ..... 1
SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE ..... 4 and 5
SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE ..... 1
SPECIAL NOTICES ..... 1
STORES AND OFFICES TO LET ..... 1
TAX COLLECTORS ..... 1
WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS ..... 1

A SMALL FAMILY, no children, best references, wish to lease a neatly

CHILDREN BOARDED
CARE of infant or older child; hear location; $10, $12. Mrs. King, 810 M ave., San Leandro, Ph. San Leandro. 36

WIDOWWOOD—Ideal home for folks; nurse. 25 Fairview ave. S. mont. east of Grand ave line or P. mont 5082.

WOMAN like to take care of child; home: 2 in family; very reasonable. 516 32nd st. nr. Telegraph. Oak 85

WANTED—CHILD to board; mother's and care; large sunny home. 1210 8th

HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS

AA—RIGHT in town, most prettily
Refined neighborhood; $3 to $3.50 w
VIRGINIA APTS., 1759 Franklin
A—1414 ALICE ST., near Hotel Oakl newly furn. rooms, 38-520 mo.; kiloto beautiful grounds. Phone Lakeside 5
A 2-ROOM apt. and 1-room apt. ch
35 21st st.; first house W. of San P
A—Bisping and furn single front;
every conven; reas. 118 12th st. O.
A FRONT sunny hkg. room, $2.50

A-"WESTWARD," 1. 2 and 3 bds. in apt. on K R; water, heat, elec. apt. 1025 Mkt. on K R; water, heat, elec. BERKELEY-Single rooms, $6; hkg. fr. mo. up, 2122A Dwight way. Berk. CLEAN rms.; gas, water, phone; $1.50/5th up. 1956 12th st. Phone Oak 8417. CLEAN furn. and hkg. rms.; gas, water, elec.; ph.; $1.50 wk. up. 535 29th FOUR sunny, furn. hkgp. rooms, $2/3 including gas, phone, light. 1547 Park st. Berkeley.

FR. 14th and 20th sts.

FL KN. APYS. and single rooms, privs see these first. 2104 Franklin st.

FOUR best rooms; bath; close in; of rent. 626 Fallon, Phone Oakland 82

LADY wants 2 ladies employed to s expense of budget; reasonable; home, references. Box 3629, Trib

NICE sunny likw rms., bath, all veniences, gas and elec. free; single room. Call G. 3404

2 FURN. hkgp. rms. 782 19th st.; C lard 1888.
$16-1 SUNNY furn. rms. bath, ph
S. P. and avrs. 1017 8th ave.
MAGNOLIA, 914-2 front rms. $12. 1
kitchenette $10, single, 38; bath; y
NICEY furn. 3-rm. with bath; 1
rm. Apt.; gas range, free phone bath; running water. 1233 Myrtle
TWO rooms and kitchenette, furnishe unfurnished; also one room furnis

Two front sunny basking room; every amenity. $10. 602 South St.

UPTOWN office of THE TRIBUNE,
Broadway, adjoining First Natl
Bank, after April 1.

(Continued on Next Page)

WEDNESDAY EVENING

McCLAUGHRY
ALMONY
LAPSES*Baldwin Heiress Travels in Europe; Estranged Husband
Waits for $75,000.

What can be done when the price of a divorce isn't paid?

That is the knotty problem the Superior Court may have to solve, if Hull McClaughry, former husband of the daughter of the late Baldwin heiress, can't pay the price of her divorce.

Mrs. McClaughry has neglected to pay $75,000, the second installment of the sum agreed on, when she and her husband separated. The money was due yesterday, and Mrs. McClaughry, now in London with her two children, says she won't pay, according to her friends.

"I should worry," Hull McClaughry retorts.

The famous ante-divorce agreement, in which the price of her release was $75,000, the second installment of the sum agreed on, when she and her husband separated. The money was due yesterday, and Mrs. McClaughry, now in London with her two children, says she won't pay, according to her friends.

Now she recants.

According to Mrs. McClaughry's friends she has no intention of paying more, and another chapter in the McClaughry marital storms, which have included kidnapping charges, while the husband surrounded by lawyers and detectives, guarded his children from her lawyers and detectives, may be written in the court records.

In giving her reasons for refusing to make further payments, it is said Mrs. McClaughry declared that plans have been made within the year to kidnap her children, these plans, she alleges, being hatched by her husband. It had been agreed that she was to have the children and that the father should visit them at stipulated times.

The children, Dexter and Baldwin, were the center of a siege of some weeks at McClaughry's country home at Galt before the divorce suit was filed. Detectives stood guard while the father kept them prisoners. At that time the divorce agreement was reached.

The mother was to be permitted to take the children to Europe in any one of the years 1914, 1915 and 1916, but not to remain there longer than four months.

It is this European trip, provided by contract, that Mrs. McClaughry is making now. She left on June 3 and went East by way of Canada. She left New York on the steamship George Washington on June 20, after keeping her stay at the Vanderbilt Hotel in New York City a secret.

Several in party.

Sailing with her were Dexter and Baldwin McClaughry, Mrs. Mary Norris, Harle Stewart, purchasing agent for her London estate, and a maid named Alice. Mrs. McClaughry said that one of her chief objects was to visit her former French nurse and governess in Switzerland.

She laughed at the question as to whether she would leave her children in Switzerland for that long, she said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Lawyers canny.

Gavin McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

Hull McClaughry, when seen in Oakland, said he was not at all communicative, but he would not say whether he was intentional or not.

"The whole matter is in my lawyers' hands, and I should worry," he said.

None of the attorneys for Mrs. McClaughry or for her former husband would discuss the case at any length.

Charles W. McNab, an attorney for her, said she was absolutely uncommunicative, except to say Mrs. McClaughry was in Europe and he did not know whether he would be her attorney in any further court actions.

"DICK" TULLY--IDEALIST IS GALAHAD OF DRAMA

RICHARD WALTON TULLY, CALIFORNIA PLAYWRIGHT, WHO WANTS HIS NAME TO STAND AS A TRADE-MARK FOR THE "BLUSHLESS PLAY."

"Blushless Plays Are All I Write," Explains
Author of "Omar the Tentmaker"

Wanted—to be a trademark.

That's the ambition of Richard Walton Tully, author of "Omar the Tentmaker," who has returned with his greatest success, to his old home and the city where his first play was produced at Macdonough theater, thirteen years ago. The author of "James Woberts, Freshman," University of California class farce, stood on the same stage, looked into some of the same faces this week, and announced that his first big work was completed by the story told across the footlights of the Persian poet and his love.

"I want my name to be a trademark for a certain kind of drama," declared Tully, "and I want to be known as that, why, perhaps, I have written so few plays. I started out to write a trilogy, beginning with 'The Rose of the Rancho,' 'The Bird of Paradise,' and 'Omar' have completed the chain. There is a connection, I believe, and I have tried to bring out in the plays great elemental forces.

THREADS OF FANTASY.

"It is so that a play should be—and it is for this that I want to have my name stand. I hope to be known as the California dramatist—and I have tried to write California drama. California's drama should be like California itself—exotic, beautiful, full of sunshine, love and life. That's what I tried to do in 'The Rose of the Rancho.' I told the story of the old lands, slowly fading from their chosen land. It wasn't new. It had been lying around for years for a dramatist to take up. In the same way, 'The Bird of Paradise' is a play about a parrot—perhaps the best-known poet of ages—had never been used for a play.

"Take 'The Bird of Paradise.' I simply took one girl for the type of the Hawaiian people; one man for one type and another for the other type. In the islands, you see, one man gets the spirit of the languorous tropics, and goes down, losing ambition, until he is a mere excuse for humanity. The other type becomes ambitious, big.

A TALE OF KILAUEA.

"I took the old legend of the princess who ascended the volcano and defied her gods. The volcano for years menaced the land—and then an other princess, offering sacrifice to the offended gods, returned to the region of the land, and then defied the volcano. Tradition says it subsided, and did not harm her. I simply put these two together. One woman renounced the gods of her people—and then returned to them. It typifies the people. That's all.

"I believe that a play, really written to teach a moral lesson, is laudable. However, the so-called 'sex plays' and 'white slave plays' with which the market is glutted were written for no such reason, and simply to make money. Into box offices. A dramatist who essays such a play kills himself. In the first place, anyone can write them. Therefore they're not worth much—and his reputation suffers, so that when he writes a new play the public thinks of the old—and stays away.

NO PARNAGRAPHS PLAYS.

"I believe that the dramatist should do what he is best fitted to do, and as best he knows how. My motto is to give my audience something that they will

A disappointed audience, or an audience leaving the theater with the women and girls blushing, is a disaster.

"Me for the 'blushless play' I have found that it paid. I have written three, each one doing better than the one before, and I am to do more.

The disappointing or disgusting play is bad for the star as well as the author. As an example, a certain young actress, estis in the Sierra forest reserve, California, a brother of the missing man yesterday, a certain young actress,

The brother, who has the same first name, is Louis N. Margolin, of the firm of Mirken & Margolin, lat manufacturer.

Margolin, who was stationed in the Sierra forest reserve, disappeared on Friday, June 12.

A disappointed audience, or an audience leaving the theater with the women and girls blushing, is a disaster.

"Me for the 'blushless play' I have found that it paid. I have written three, each one doing better than the one before, and I am to do more.

NEW SANTA FE
LINE IN TULARE*Preparations Are Made for Extension From Lindsay to Exeter.

Lindsay, July 1.—City officials have granted to the Minkler Southern (the Santa Fe railroad) a fifty-year franchise for the use of certain city streets. The company has secured a suitable site for a railroad station and practically the entire right of way for the extension of the line from Exeter to this city has been secured. It is also announced that upon the completion of the line to this city work will be taken up to secure a right of way to Porterville, through the orange district. Some preliminary work on the Porterville extension has already been done.

twenty votes was separating Miss Edna Bunt, Alberta Page and Pearl Roberts at the close of last night's balloting in the popularity contest which is to decide who shall rule over San Rafael's Fourth of July celebration.

Santa Rosa, July 1.—The county of Sonoma, yesterday afternoon was made defendant in three damage suits resulting from alleged negligence in allowing a horse across Santa Rosa's streets. The suits are to become disipated, which caused a horse to take fright and back a surrey laden with people off the structure and into the creek below. Frank Guffin, a youth, lost his life, Mrs. May Doherty had her leg broken and was otherwise hurt, and Lillie Hatch, who was driving the horse, was also badly hurt. Frank Guffin sues for $25,000 for the death of his son and Lillie Hatch and May Doherty each sue for $10,000 damages. All are residents of San Francisco.

Chico, July 1.—The asphalt plant of the Chico Construction Company was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss is $10,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire will delay paving some of the streets until a new outfit can be procured. The flames spread to dry grass in pastures adjoining and threatened the suburban section north of Chico creek.

Petaluma, July 1.—George Jones, Geo. Armbruster and Horace Chandler, three well-known young men of the city, were badly burned in a gasoline explosion late yesterday afternoon at a local garage, and Jones is at the Petaluma General Hospital, while the other two have been able to go to their homes. Chandler had driven his truck into the garage for repairs, and when a bolt was lost beneath the machine Jones lighted a match in an endeavor to find it.

Sacramento, July 1.—Charles W. Paine, former director of the State Board of Agriculture, was chosen secretary yesterday by the Board to succeed J. L. McCarthy, who died. The position carries a salary of $3,000 a year. The Board organized by re-electing A. L. Scott, San Francisco, president; D. E. Rush, Sulphur, vice-president, and L. L. Borden, treasurer.

Fresno, July 1.—Construction work on the first unit of the Fresno Interurban Company's line to Clovis has been completed and John Rogers of San Francisco, president of the road, announced yesterday that the first car would be run on the line today, providing, however, that the papers between the San Joaquin Light and Power Company and the road were signed.

Fresno, July 1.—Upon his promise to go out and make an honest living and make restitution to the widow that he was swindled by his fake palmarist, W. E. Garland, clairvoyant and ex-minister of the Spiritualist church, was released on parole yesterday. He pleaded guilty to one charge and denied the other.

Santa Rosa, July 1.—From $300, Justice of the Peace George MacFarlane has advanced his fine of "blind-piggers" to $450, and states that there will be a further advance if the offense continues. John Herbst of Camp Meeker was arrested yesterday by Sheriff Jack Smith and Deputy Donald McIntosh. Evidence was found that the man had been running a "blind pig," and he pleaded guilty.

San Rafael, July 1.—The San Rafael City Council has let a contract for paving and other improving about two and one-half miles of streets at a total cost of approximately $128,000.

Woodland, July 1.—While riding on his bicycle today, Harry Summers, a well known merchant of this city, was struck by a motorcycle driven by J. W. Woy, also of Woodland. Those who saw the collision declare that Woy was traveling not less than thirty miles an hour, and that he was the wrong side of the road. Summers' clothing was almost torn from him and an arm and knee had been badly lacerated. Woy's injuries are trivial.

Sacramento, July 1.—James McRobert, of Yuba county, sentenced to sixteen years in Folsom prison in 1904 on conviction of murder in the second degree and paroled in 1909, was pardoned yesterday by Governor Johnson, on the recommendation of Judge E. E. Gaddis of Woodland and W. A. Anderson who, as district attorney, prosecuted McRobert.

Stockton, July 1.—Ambrose E. O'Neill, third vice president of the California Drug Clerks' Association and editor of "The California Drug Clerks' Journal," died here yesterday following an operation for an abdominal abscess.

ATTACHMENT LEVIED BY SHERIFF BRINGS SUIT

Because, as he charges, Attorney Leon and Rose attached an automobile that didn't belong to the man he held judgment against, Nels Gustaf has brought suit in the Superior Court to recover the machine and also to levy damage claims to the sum of $750 on Sheriff Frank Barnett for levying the attachment.

The suit grew out of a bill declared to have been owing by Charles L. Bender, Rose, seeing him driving an automobile, had it attached. Gustaf declares the machine is his and not Bender's. Bender declares that there is no judgment on file against him, and investigation has disclosed the fact that the paper has been removed from the county clerk's office. An investigation is being made.

WORLD EPWORTH LEAGUE NAMES SAN FRANCISCO

PETALUMA, N. Y., July 1.—Preliminary to the opening of the International convention of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church here tonight the board of control held two business sessions yesterday and decided to hold next year's convention in San Francisco.

PETALUMA, N. Y., July 1.—Preliminary to the opening of the International convention of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal Church here tonight the board of control held two business sessions yesterday and decided to hold next year's convention in San Francisco.

Hassocks
70c each*Fine for automobiles, porches or any room in the home

125 of these to be sold tomorrow in our Rug, Carpet and Drapery Department, third floor. They are well made; two styles, round and oblong, as illustrated. Covered with Axminster Body Brussels velvet and Tapestry Carpet in fine patterns; pretty brown shades and two-tone effects; makes a splendid foot-rest.

On sale Thursday, one to a customer.

No telephone or C. O. D. orders.

Delivery at our earliest convenience.

Special
3 rooms
complete

This is a splendid value shown in rooms on our second floor: It includes everything for housekeeping—gas and electric cooking, dishes, cooking utensils and bedding; kitchen, dining-room and bedroom.

$143.30

Terms $15.00 down, $3.00 week

One price

Dignified Credit JACKSON'S

Cash or time

HEAT IN JULY:
FATHER RIGARD*"Padre of the Rains" Makes Predictions for New Month.

SAN JOSE, July 1.—Father "Padre" Rigard of Santa Clara University gave out today his weather predictions for July. He predicts increasing warmth and several periods of more than ordinary heat. His summary of weather conditions and prospects follows:

During the coming month depression or barometric disturbances, will occur as follows:

July 1, 2
July 7, 8
July 13, 14, 15
July 20, 22
July 26, 27, 28
August 2, 4

More than ordinary warmth, July 16 to 19, 20 to 22, 23 to 25.

July, as a more matter of course, will be warmer than June. Usual summer, depressionary areas, all along the coast, translate themselves into areas of warmth, except in the high north and the mountains of Arizona where our usual winter and predominates with clouds and sometimes rain and the heat attendant upon the season.

GEATER WARMTH.

Areas of low barometric pressure universally mean greater warmth than the areas of high barometric pressure.

The former areas are so constituted that the whirls of air in them, start from the ground upward, turning counter-clockwise in this hemisphere, drawing the moisture and the heat from the soil, diffusing them in the air above the surface, scattering and rainmaking the same air and thus producing a general condition favorable to the formation of clouds and rain drops, wherever the temperature falls down to the dew point.

It is, in fact, a matter of general observation that a falling barometer is either accompanied or immediately followed by the appearance of clouds in the midst of clear skies, even in summer.

Clouds, negatively, are a source of heat during the winter by intercepting the warm air waves from the ground and reverberating them back to earth, whereas, during the summer, they act as an umbrella against the ardors of the sun under its diminished and diminished obliquity.

NEW SOURCE OF HEAT.

Contrariwise, areas of rising barometer are so constituted that the whirls of air in them start from the upper regions downward turning clockwise in this hemisphere, bringing with them crisp pure and dry air from on high in contact with the ground and thus producing a general condition favorable for the finest kind of weather we can get, clear skies, warm days and cool or cold nights, according to the season, the latitude and the differences of longitude east or west.

The Weather Bureau insists that there is a new source of heat in areas of high barometer and Washington to the northeast and east, whence the air flows blithewar with an extra supply of heat which comes to it from a double source, one external and the other internal, namely, first from the heated ground by radiation, and second through the friction of its own particles, among themselves, during its long journey from the north and the northeast to these parts.

Such, according to certain Weather Bureau professors, would be the origin of our hot waves, let alone planets, sunspots or any and every other foreign source.

WORLD PAPER MARKET FOR AMERICA STUDIED

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Investigation of foreign markets for the sale of American paper of all classes recently was completed, the Department of Commerce announced today.

The inquiry, made by American consular officers, covered all the world markets except those in Africa. The results of the investigations are to be published for manufacturers, after which the reports will be displayed in numerous cities.

DENVER, July 1.—Denver and a score of cities in northern Colorado were besieged by the agents of the decision delivered recently by the state railroad commission and upheld by the supreme court reducing the freight rates on coal from the Greeley Commercial Club, which took the matter before the railroad commission.

HE GOT HER GOAT,
SHE GETS DIVORCE

Getting a goat to test grounds for divorce. That isn't a matter of theory any more but a principle in law, established by Judge William H. Donahue and officials set as a precedent in the court decisions. Lulu B. Shazade has been awarded an interlocutory divorce decree on the goat-getting complaint. Further than that, the court recognized that a suit had been added to injury when, after getting her goat, she threw it at her then recovered it, cooked it and gave a party with it. This long list of the goat's perjuries was duly rehearsed in court pending the decision.

Shazade is a ladies' tailor. According to his wife he killed her pet goat to make an Oakland holiday. She also complained that he related always on four or five relatives' names.

Earlier in Woodville declares in a suit filed in the Superior Court that her husband, Franz, picked a fight with her on every anniversary of their wedding. She got an interlocutory decree on the ground of cruelty.

Adelaide Menaul has started suit against Leroy Kendall, charging that he passed worthless checks, causing her annoyance.

Elmer Rosin is suing Emil C. Neesh, a candy maker, on the ground of cruelty.

Alice Groves is suing Fred Groves, on the same charge and David Davis is suing Lilian Rose on the grounds of desertion.

DANES AND IRISH TO MEET IN TUG-OF-WAR

The Danes and the Irish of California will settle their long-standing dispute over their respective claims to supremacy in the tug-of-war world, when teams of brawny sons of Denmark and Ireland meet on the flats at Shellmound Park on Sunday July 19, during the regular outdoor carnival of sports and games to be conducted by the Original "Goat" Driving Club of San Francisco.

The winning team will be eligible to compete at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in the international tournament.

A bonus athletic meet under the auspices of the Pacific Amateur Association will be held in connection with the carnival. Scores of the best athletes in California have entered the various events.

Gaelic dancing championships will be decided at the sports. All the leading experts will compete. Prize Scotch dancing will also be featured. Winners of the dancing contests will be offered contracts with the Irish Theater of the coming World's Fair.

Among the prominent Irishmen who are members of the committee-in-charge are: James Barry, John Walsh, Dan Cotter, J. Manning, P. J. Kelleher, Eugene McArthur, Tim Sullivan, P. H. McCarthy, Con Lacey, Jerry Sullivan, T. Quinn, John Green, P. Demery, Edward Courtney and R. J. McElroy.

HE GOT HER GOAT,
SHE GETS DIVORCE*Tale of Woe Shows Pet Was Damned, Slammed and Then "Lamb"-basted.

Getting a goat to test grounds for divorce. That isn't a matter of theory any more but a principle in law, established by Judge William H. Donahue and officials set as a precedent in the court decisions. Lulu B. Shazade has been awarded an interlocutory divorce decree on the goat-getting complaint. Further than that, the court recognized that a suit had been added to injury when, after getting her goat, she threw it at her then recovered it, cooked it and gave a party with it. This long list of the goat's perjuries was duly rehearsed in court pending the decision.

Shazade is a ladies' tailor. According to his wife he killed her pet goat to make an Oakland holiday. She also complained that he related always on four or five relatives' names.

Earlier in Woodville declares in a suit filed in the Superior Court that her husband, Franz, picked a fight with her on every anniversary of their wedding. She got an interlocutory decree on the ground of cruelty.

Adelaide Menaul has started suit against Leroy Kendall, charging that he passed worthless checks, causing her annoyance.

Elmer Rosin is suing Emil C. Neesh, a candy maker, on the ground of cruelty.

Alice Groves is suing Fred Groves, on the same charge and David Davis is suing Lilian Rose on the grounds of desertion.

DANES AND IRISH TO MEET IN TUG-OF-WAR

The Danes and the Irish of California will settle their long-standing dispute over their respective claims to supremacy in the tug-of-war world, when teams of brawny sons of Denmark and Ireland meet on the flats at Shellmound Park on Sunday July 19, during the regular outdoor carnival of sports and games to be conducted by the Original "Goat" Driving Club of San Francisco.

The winning team will be eligible to compete at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in the international tournament.

A bonus athletic meet under the auspices of the Pacific Amateur Association will be held in connection with the carnival. Scores of the best athletes in California have entered the various events.

Gaelic dancing championships will be decided at the sports. All the leading experts will compete. Prize Scotch dancing will also be featured. Winners of the dancing contests will be offered contracts with the Irish Theater of the coming World's Fair.

Among the prominent Irishmen who are members of the committee-in-charge are: James Barry, John Walsh, Dan Cotter, J. Manning, P. J. Kelleher, Eugene McArthur, Tim Sullivan, P. H. McCarthy, Con Lacey, Jerry Sullivan, T. Quinn, John Green, P. Demery, Edward Courtney and R. J. McElroy.

OKLAHOMA TO ENFORCE CONSERVATION OF OIL

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 1.—In accordance with an agreement reached among independent oil producers of Oklahoma, George A. Henshaw, State Corporation Commissioner, yesterday issued an order prohibiting the bringing in of new oil wells except under certain conditions and providing other regulations for the conservation of the States supply of oil.

An pipe line companies are relieved as common carriers from taking the production of any new wells brought in after July 1, except such wells as are provided for in the order.

These include necessary offsets, such drilling as is necessary to preserve lease titles and wells now being drilled.

DIVORCE GRANTED ON CHARGES OF CRUELTY

Mae Gaillard has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce in the Superior Court. The complaint against her was brought by her husband, who charged that he once knocked her down in the street, beat her with an umbrella and otherwise mistreated her. She was awarded custody of the two children.

ALLEGES FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATION

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—After being induced to purchase a watch for $18 which he was told was worth $40, Quin O'Connell, a sailor on the steamship Sonoma, complained to the police today that he had discovered the timepiece to be worth only $4. He accompanied Policeman J. D. Hayden of the Harbor Station to the store of Isadore Stenberg, at 350 Market street. Stenberg denied that he had sold the watch for $18, but he was forced to take the matter up with the authorities which he will probably do. The watch was sold to him by a clerk. He had originally gone into the store to purchase a chain but took advantage of the alleged bargain.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL TO HAVE JAPANESE BRANCH

TOKYO, July 1.—A meeting of prominent Japanese was held today under the the Japanese premier, to organize a Japanese branch for the extension of St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital, under the direction of Dr. R. B. Tenner, into a modern international hospital.

Baron Takaaki Kato, the Japanese foreign minister today, gave a luncheon in honor of Representative William D. Bailey of Pennsylvania.

J. TREAGER
JEWELER

Jewelry, $1 per week.

Money Lended at Low Rates.

Watch and Jewelry Repairing.

715 Washington St.

Phone Oak. 2494.